ORDINARY TIME

So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead
but asleep."
- Mk 5:39

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

Today's Gospel offers a rare framework -- a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are standalone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on his way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on his journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch his cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl.

Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story -- the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl -- and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning.

Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply staunch the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. This process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that he wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear his calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in peace."

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

More on the Our Father! You might have thought we covered this on the last trivia, what is going on here? Actually we are only beginning to look at this perfect prayer. Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) "Who art in Heaven" is a biblical expression that does not mean a place ("space"), but a way of being.
- 2) When we say, "Who art in Heaven" we do not mean that God is distant.
- 3) God is close to us because He is thrice-holy.
- 4) God is in the hearts of the just, as in his holy temple.
- 5) Heaven could also be those who bear the image of the heavenly world, and in whom God dwells and tarries.
- 6) The symbol of the heavens refers us back to the mystery of the covenant we are living when we pray to our Father.
- 7) Sin has exiled us from the land of the covenant, but conversion of heart enables us to return to the Father, to heaven.
- 8) In Christ heaven and earth are reconciled, for the Son alone descended from heaven.
- 9) Jesus helps us to ascend into heaven with him by his Cross, Resurrection and Ascension.
- 10) Christians are in the flesh, but do not live according to the flesh. They spend their lives on earth, but are citizens of heaven.

Dear Padre

Is there any sense in suffering? A friend is in great pain, and I don't think she should have to suffer so much. No one should!

The most popular book of Catholic devotion is The Imitation of Christ, written by Thomas à Kempis. He wrote this as he watched his best friends and members of his religious community suffer and die from the plague. Much of the book revolves around suffering.

Thomas wrote that it was not deep words that made a person holy and upright, but a good life, lived in God's presence. He believed God walked with the simple, and revealed God's very self to the humble. For Thomas à Kempis, there is no solution to suffering except to put your faith in Christ.

The Book of Job explores the mystery of innocent people experiencing misery and evil. Job suffers great pains and hardships, but he comes to the conclusion that faith in God must transcend personal pain and suffering.

Jesus advises his followers to take up their cross and follow him (Matthew 10:38, 16:24; Mark 8:34; and Luke 9:23, 14:27). Saint Paul reminds us that we suffer with Christ so that we may be glorified with him (Romans 8:17). The epistle of James challenges Christians to consider trials of any kind as nothing but a joy (James 1:2).

We all suffer. It's part of life. Our faith in Jesus is the bridge that can lead us over the chasm of suffering to the place of peace that many of the early martyrs and saints found.

WALKING WITH THE SAINTS 2018

St. Francis de Sales offers a summer reflection for us to contemplate: "Admire the gracious innocence and purity of little strawberries, because, though they lie upon the ground and are continually crept over by lizards and other venomous beasts, they are not infected with poison nor have any affinity with poison. Such then are human virtues, though they may be in a heart occupied by sin, they are not infected by malice. They are supernatural gifts from God and indeed unmerited. The man planted in the House of God and dedicated to the service of our God will produce good fruits that are sweet!"

As you take summer strolls with your companion saint for 2018, think about the virtues he/she demonstrated in his/her life. Is there one action you could do each day that would be like your saint companion?

Our Parish's Patron Saint, St. Rose of Lima, could always be found praying in her garden. Please do not hesitate to come to the beautiful garden full of Divine inspirations next to the Parish Office. Have you ever wondered what St. Rose might have really looked like? Just type into your search engine: "Is this what Saint Rose might have really looked like? Catholic News Agency." A forensic team from the University of St. Martin de Porres in Peru reconstructed St. Rose's face after they analyzed her skull and shared the results of their research. As we approach the Fourth of July Holiday and honor America's Founding Fathers, it's interesting that the nation of Peru honors St. Rose as we do Benjamin Franklin. Ben Franklin is pictured on the United States' highest denomination of currency in circulation, the hundred dollar bill. St. Rose's depiction is on Peru's highest denomination of currency in circulation, the 200 nuevos soles banknote! But we know it was not the dollar sign St. Rose truly stood for, but rather, the sign of the Cross of our Savior.
