Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." - Lk 9:58

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship. "The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Fr. Ray is providing a nine-part series on Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation, Gaudete Et Exultate, Rejoice and be Glad. If you are interested in acquiring this book go to Our Sunday Visitor or Amazon.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

Jesus asks everything of us, but at the same time He offers us true life and happiness. Jesus wants us to be saints, and our Holy Father will give us some practical ways to become holy. In our Church today we celebrate the lives of a number of saints and we strive to imitate their lives as they intercede for us; people like Abraham, Sarah, Moses, and Gideon. We also have examples of faith in other saints who have never been officially proclaimed as saints by the Church; individuals such as our mothers, grandmothers and other loved ones. The Holy Spirit bestows holiness among all of God's faithful people. In Salvation history, the Lord saved one people. We are never completely ourselves unless we belong to a people.

We are surrounded today by a middle class of holiness, parents who raise their children with love, the men and women who faithfully go to work every day, the sick and the elderly. Their example of faith spurs us on in holiness, for holiness is the most attractive face of the Church.

PILGRIMAGE

Join Fr. Philip Vaske, Fr. Louis Shea and pilgrims from the Diocese of Cheyenne this November 8-18 on a pilgrimage to the great and holy place of Italy! There are only fifteen more spaces available. On this trip we will explore Rome, Assisi and San Giovanni Rotondo. We will visit the tombs and venerate the relics of St. Francis, St. Claire, St. Padre Pio, St. Peter, St. Paul and so many more! We will have an audience with the Pope and attend daily Mass in many different shrines and basilicas throughout Italy. This trip also features a visit to the Eucharistic Miracle at Lanciano and the Benedictine Abbey at Monte Cassino. We've selected beautiful four--star hotels for this journey and a private motor coach will accompany us throughout, making the trip comfortable and handicapped-friendly. The price is $3600 and includes roundtrip airfare from Denver. For more information or to sign up please contact the tour coordinator Joe Long at jlong@prorome.com or 540-466-6070. Or visit the web: www.prorome.com.

PRAYING WITH BODY, MIND, AND VOICE

Making the Sign of the Cross We begin and end Mass by marking ourselves with the Sign of the Cross. Because it was by his death on the Cross that Christ redeemed humankind, we trace the Sign of the Cross on our foreheads, lips, and hearts at the beginning of the Gospel, praying that the Word of God may be always in our minds, on our lips, and in our hearts. The cross reminds us in a physical way of the Paschal Mystery we celebrate: the death and Resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ.

LIVE THE LITURGY - WEEKLY INSPIRATION

"No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." Jesus' words may seem a bit harsh but are directly on target. Upholding the tenets of the Gospel can put us at odds, even with those most close to us.

Jesus never misses an opportunity to spend time with outcasts and sinners. It matters little to him whether doing so breaks a Sabbath law. The Gospel may seem unrealistic, but it is the Gospel nonetheless. We respect the dignity of all persons, from conception to natural death. We work on behalf of justice, which calls us to be with the poor, lonely, confused, and broken. The old "eye for an eye" mentality no longer applies when it comes to dealing with those who hurt us. When Jesus asks you to follow him, will you go?

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained...

This time of year, I attend a lot of weddings. Why do Catholic weddings need to take place in a church?

Technically, there is a clause in Church law that could allow for weddings to take place outside of a church, in a suitable space under special circumstances, but it requires the rare permission of the bishop. But the meaning of marriage goes very, very deep, and the Church has a vested interest in protecting that meaning. As Catholics, we don't see a wedding as an event that needs a pleasing backdrop.

Marriage is a sacrament, both an occasion of joyful promise and symbolic solemnity. It is a spiritual event. The loving bond of marriage symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and his Church. The man and woman profess lifelong vows of fidelity, and they receive supernatural grace from God to keep their promises. Receiving the sacrament of Marriage in a church has broader symbolic meaning for the couple as well. Marriage isn't simply two people in isolation from the world around them. Marriage is the joining of families and the beginning of a new, holy mission in the life of the couple. Weddings are sacred occasions, and it's fitting that they occur in sacred spaces.
