SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
"For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." - Jn 6:33

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LFI

In an on-demand society, it's not always easy to imagine life with less. The crowds of Jesus' day depended on the weather and successful growing seasons for their livelihood. For many of Jesus' listeners, even "food that perishes" would have been a welcome relief. Jesus acknowledges this but tries to draw them deeper. "You are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled." For people who have just witnessed a miracle, the response is strangely marked by ingratitude. "What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert." Jesus fed them for one day, but Moses interceded with God for 40 years of bread. "Jesus," they seem to say, "can't you just give us more?" How often do we behave similarly in the spiritual life? "If I only I had more patience, then I could be kind to her." "I could be welcoming if I was more outgoing, but that's just not me." "I know I'd be a better parent if I just had more time." Like the crowds, we want Jesus to give us more. We always don't want him to completely shift our paradigm. Perhaps it's not "more patience" we need, but a deeper sense of our own imperfections for a greater sense of empathy. Maybe God is inviting you not to entertain an entire group, but to seek out the quiet person on the fringe. And time may limit you from family engagement, but could God be asking you to reorder your priorities entirely? After all, it wasn't more loaves that the people needed. Jesus is "the bread of life," who sustains our most essential needs. This week, are you looking for more or are you looking for God Himself?

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Answers from July 29:

Catholic Trivia (Answers)

- 1) True, as seen in #2822 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church;
- 2) True, as seen in #2822 of the CCC;
- 3) True, as seen in #2823 of the CCC;
- 4) False, as seen in #2823 of the CCC, rather God's will is to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth, which is a quote from Ephesians;
- 5) True, as seen in #2824 of the CCC ;
- 6) False, as seen in #2824 of the CCC, Jesus is the only one that can say that he has always done what pleases his Father;
- 7) True, as seen in #2825 of the CCC which is a quote from Hebrews 10:10;
- 8) True, as seen in #2825 of the CCC;
- 9) False, as seen in #2825 of the CCC, with the grace of God we can indeed imitate the life of Jesus;
- 10) True, as seen in #2825 of the CCC which is a quote from St. John Chrysostom.

Today we look at the fourth petition from the Lord's Prayer. This is a really important one because it asks for something really important. Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) In the Lord's Prayer we ask God to give this special gift to everyone but not to ourselves as a way of self-sacrifice.
- 2) This petition calls us to be trusting children of our Father in heaven.
- 3) It is the Father who gives to all the living their food in due season.
- 4) By asking this petition from the Father we actually glorify Him by acknowledging how good He is, beyond all goodness.
- 5) In this petition we recognize that God is the Father of everyone and so we pray to him for them in solidarity with their needs and sufferings.
- 6) We ask God of "Our bread."
- 7) When we pray for our bread, God gives us the wisdom to balance our budgets so that we can afford a loaf of bread at the grocery store.
- 8) Praying for this daily bread reminds God that we are in need of many appropriate goods and blessings, both material and spiritual.
- 9) This petition also reminds us that we are to exercise responsibility toward our brothers and sisters.
- 10) The petition should remind us of the parable of the poor man Lazarus and the Last Judgment.

Dear Padre

While attending Mass at a different church, my husband and I saw a woman clutching a dog. My husband was perturbed when she went to Communion carrying her dog. Are there guidelines about bringing animals to Mass?

Animals are part of God's creation. "He surrounds them with his providential care. By their mere existence they bless and give him glory" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2416). We bless animals in honor of St. Francis, usually outdoors, showing our care for them in God's creation.

Seeing dogs inside church is uncommon, though some churches have been noted to be "pet friendly" by encouraging parishioners to bring pets to Sunday worship.

Your or any parishioner's experience requires parish leaders to make choices based on a clear rationale. Perhaps the pastor agreed to a special circumstance, allowing the dog because its presence offered emotional support. Service dogs, including emotional-support dogs, are certified and welcomed because of legitimate need.

A parish policy about dogs should consider the safety and well-being of animals and parishioners. A strange environment with lots of people can make dogs anxious. Also, some people are anxious around dogs. In cases of conflict, human needs are typically taken more seriously.

Another concern is cleanliness and allergies. Well-trained dogs may be accident free, but animals that trigger allergies pose problems. Reactions are serious matters, so policies need to consider people's health.

Dogs in church should not be a distraction. Well-trained service dogs have specific functions and should pose minimal distractions; family pets are another matter. Understanding the real need helps us form an appropriate pastoral response that serves the good of all.

YOUTH ITALY PILGRIMAGE

Bishop Steven invites Catholic high school students from the Diocese of Cheyenne who graduate in 2019, 2020, or 2021 and their parents to participate in a pilgrimage to Italy. The pilgrimage will be June 14-24, 2019 and the cost is $4,895 per person. All details including trip inclusions, criteria for attending, itinerary, and the registration packet are available at <http://www.dioceseofcheyenne.org/youth.html>. Space is very limited, and registrations are being accepted on a first come first serve basis. For questions contact Maria at mward@dioceseofcheyenne.org.

All you have to do is to have in view the object of pleasing God in everything you do, and I will add that instead of making your action more difficult by doing them for God, you will make them, on the contrary, much more pleasant and arduous. In the morning, when you awake, think at once of God and quickly make the sign of the cross, saying to Him: "My God, I give you my heart, and since you are so good as to give me another day, give me the grace that everything I do will be for your honor and for the salvation of my soul."
