1st Sunday OF LENT

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. - Lk 4:1-2a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

As we enter into this Lenten season of penance and self-denial, we're reminded that the God we follow is no stranger to these things. In this Sunday's Gospel, we see the temptations of Jesus which have parallels throughout Scripture and in our own lives. The apostle John warns against temptations to sensual lust, enticement of the eyes, and a pretentious life (cf. 1 John 2:16). Before Eve plucks the fruit from the tree, she hears it is good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom (cf. Genesis 3:6). The temptations of Jesus are our own.

"Turn these stones to bread." Here is the lure of bodily comfort, like good food or sensual lust. It's the simplest of temptations because it's instinctual. We want good for our bodies! But there may be times these bodily goods don't serve the higher good for our souls. The leap "from the temple parapet" would entice the eye of the person watching. A feat like this would prove Jesus' Messianic ability. His popularity could be a shortcut to the cross. We might not be daredevils, but we want people to like us and be impressed by us. Do we sacrifice our values along the way? To "bow and worship" the devil - and so claim power and a pretentious life - seems like a dramatic temptation. Not everyone may feel enticed by power in the professional sense, but all of us want control. A volunteer team can feel just as intense as the boardroom! How often do we prefer to be in control of our lives (and perhaps even the lives of others), rather than allow God to be God?

When we consider areas of temptation and sin, it's not to feel ashamed. The temptation in the desert reminds us that we are not alone and that the strength of Jesus can be our strength, too.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

During Lent we must wonder about what God asks of us during this grace filled season.

Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) We fast and pray for forty days because Jesus fasted and prayed for forty years in the desert.
 - 2) Jesus' temptation in the desert reveals the way in which the Son of God was to be the Messiah for us.
 - 3) The temptations that Satan tried Jesus with were an effort to change the way Jesus was to bring God's love to us.
 - 4) The Easter Vigil is the mother of all vigils.
 - 5) The Lenten Season and every Friday of the year are intense moments of the Church's penitential practice.
 - 6) Lent is particularly appropriate for spiritual exercises and voluntary self-denial.
 - 7) During Lent we do not eat meat on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent. This is known as the law of abstinence.
 - 8) The law of fasting permits only one full meal a day on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent.
 - 9) The law of Abstinence binds those who are 14 years and older.
 - 10) The law of Fasting binds those who have celebrated their 18th birthday and continues until they have celebrated their 59th birthday.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Temptation is a part of our lives. Even Jesus wrestled with temptation. Our faith tells us that we are meant to live our lives in service of God's kingdom. Yet, we often find ourselves pursuing our own desires rather than God's. The Gospel clearly tells us that true power is found in the embrace of virtue - living lives of non-violence, mercy, and forgiveness. Yet, we still are not convinced and seek things that will hurt us and retaliate against those who harm us. When Jesus faced temptation, he found security in who he was, which firmly rooted him in his mission and gave him the determination to trust in God. We, too, must learn to find security in our identity as a son or daughter of God, to live out our mission rooted in that truth, and to be confident in God's abiding presence.

Why do we do that?
Catholic Life Explained...

At times, temptation seems so powerful that it is almost impossible to resist. How can I be stronger in my resolve to avoid sin and temptation?

The saints have written that every human person desires the good. In a sense, we don't desire sin itself. Temptation is powerful because there is at least some bit of good in it. Even in the blackest of sin, there is something good that becomes twisted. We can look for good in sin when we feel it is lacking in our own life. When we lack true relational intimacy, it can be easy to turn to lust. When we lack confidence in God in our own lives, it can be easy to judge others or to grasp for control over situations. When we lack peace in the present moment, it can be easy to compete with others or to treat others poorly in our quest for success.

Overcoming temptation isn't just about repressing our sinful desires. If that's all we do, they'll just burst out someplace else! If there is a recurring temptation in your life, prayerfully consider why this is so appealing to you. Submit this to God and bring it to a wise person. And in the meantime, continue to resist temptation to sin. If we fail to choose God in small choices, we're several steps down the road towards failing in larger ones. Pray for the grace to persevere!

If you or someone you know is interested in joining the Catholic Church please contact Deacon Rollie at 307-532-1571.

SCAM

If you or someone you know gets an email from a member of our clergy requesting a monetary favor, this is a scam! We have had several incidents of someone posing as a member of our clergy, requesting iTunes gift cards, wiring of funds, urgent favors, etc. These emails look legitimate initially because the sender name will have a clergy name in it. The scam email address we are aware of is reverendraymoss@gmail.com, however other fake addresses may be used as well. Unfortunately due to the way this is being done it is very difficult to stop those responsible for perpetrating this scam. If you get one of these emails the best option is to block the sender and report as spam. If you have any questions please contact the Parish Office.

COME & SEE BENEDICTINE WEEKENDS

Single, divorced or widowed Catholic women age 18 and older are invited to participate in weekend retreats at St. Martin Monastery, Rapid City SD. This is an opportunity to "come and see" religious life and community living. Benedictine Weekends are held the 3rd weekend of every month (except June and July).
