ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."
- Mk 8:34b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

We know the signs of defeat: slumped shoulders, downcast eyes, a chastened demeanor. For those of us sincerely trying to follow Jesus, defeat is inevitable. We commit to spending more time with our kids, but that one project still looms. We resolve to be a good person, but our selfishness strikes again. It can be easy to get discouraged over our moral failures. Today's Gospel is a small, intriguing look at this process in the life of St. Peter.

First, Jesus' questions get the Apostles thinking about his true identity. This results in a confession of faith from Peter: "You are the Christ." Eager faith characterizes Peter's relationship with Jesus. First to follow, first to leap out of the boat, and, we know, first to deny. It's the latter tendency that manifests itself later in the Gospel. When Jesus predicts the Passion, "Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him." Jesus' rebuke in turn is stinging. While Peter's caution to Jesus is in private, Jesus intentionally turns back to the others as he declares, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Like Peter, we rarely get it right all the time. Peter understood that Jesus was the Messiah, but he had a false concept of what that Messiah would accomplish. Jesus wants to make sure the rest of the disciples don't follow down the wrong road. The Christian life is a difficult one, as Jesus later tells the crowds. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself." Yet the mercy of God is abundant. If we renew our trust and our efforts after a fall, every defeat is transformed into redemptive grace. "Whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Dear Padre

If, for economic reasons, a couple wants to purchase a home together before they marry, is it permissible for them to live together?

In the recent past, it would have been rare to find an unmarried man and woman living together as roommates. Today, however, it's fairly common. Sometimes these arrangements are dictated by finances—a homeowner or renter finds he or she can't afford to live alone so the person seeks a roommate. Other times it's a result of friendship. In many ways this is a positive development—it shows we've learned to have intimate friendships that don't involve sex.

There's nothing immoral about inhabiting the same home. However, when a joint real-estate venture is more than a business deal and involves eventual marriage, there are hazards. It's important for the couple to be very clear about what they're doing. Buying a home is a huge commitment. They should remember that real estate is one commitment, marriage is another, and they aren't interchangeable. It would be easy for one partner to insist on the house for economic reasons when the joint purchase is really an attempt to seal the marriage deal in advance. Buying a house together could create marriage pressures, making it difficult to back out due to a change of heart.

Such arrangements are full of possibilities for misunderstanding, disappointment, and anger. Unless it's clear that joint home ownership is—until marriage—just a business deal (and clear legal contracts are drawn up), it's not advisable.

What do we need in order to believe that we are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God and that we are indeed called to be saints? Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) The way of Christ leads to life and a contrary way leads to destruction.
- 2) There are two ways, the one of life and the other of death.
- 3) We need instructions that bring to us in all clarity the joy and the demands of the way of Christ.
- 4) We need instruction that pertain only to Jesus, since the Holy Spirit is more important to other Churches we do not need to learn about the Spirit.
- 5) We really do not need to have instructions on grace, for it is Jesus who saves.
- 6) We really do not need to understand the beatitudes because that was only mentioned by Jesus once in the Gospel.
- 7) We really do not need to understand sin and forgiveness, for we have the Ten Commandments so we do not need anything else.
- 8) We need a proper understanding of the human virtues so that we can grasp the beauty and attraction of goodness.
- 9) We need a proper understanding of the virtues of faith, hope, and charity so that we might be inspired by the example of the saints.
- 10) We really do not need to read Pope Francis' latest work, "Rejoice and be Glad." That is only for the leaders of the Church, they will tell us what we need to know.
