SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
"If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?" - Lk 16:11
Excerpts from the Lictionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

Twenty-Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time Compartmentalization or consistency? In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a strange story of a sneaky, savvy steward that raises questions about our personal virtue. "How much do you owe? Here is your promissory note, write one for eighty." This parable isn't advice for money management. Historically, there were many positions that acted on behalf of their masters regarding money, like customs agents, household stewards, and tax collectors. Often these workers over-charged and skimmed off the top.

Usurious practices like this were not in line with the traditional Jewish understanding of money lending, which strictly forbade them from taking interest or making a profit off of their own people. As the steward reduced the debt, he was likely writing out the amount he originally intended to take for himself. Before the steward can be commended, he needs to right the wrong done.

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." This parable contains an important self-check. We have a great many things we're responsible for that seem to have nothing to do with the kingdom of God. How do we interact in those spaces? Are we trustworthy in our dealings at work and at home? Are we honest and faithful to our commitments to family and friends? Are we honest with our money and prudent with how we spend our time?

Jesus calls his disciples to consistency. How often do we expect that we can be one person one place, yet shrug off that persona in a new situation? "No servant can serve two masters." These week, take stock of your life. All of your life. Are you living the Gospel values wherever you go?

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE

Beginning Experience is a weekend program that offers healing and renewal to divorced, widowed and separated men and women. It is a non-profit, faith-based comprehensive program offered to all persons, regardless of religious preference. A Beginning Experience weekend offers support and direction to help resolve grief or anger that can follow the end of a marriage by divorce, separation or death. You can anticipate an intense reflective, possibly painful, but spiritually honest self-encounter. You will also find support, warm fellowship, and community. The next Beginning Experience weekend will be in Casper and starts promptly at 7:00 P.M. on Friday evening Oct. 25th and runs through Sunday afternoon around 4pm Oct. 27th. You must commit to the entire weekend. The donation we ask for the weekend is $150.00, which includes sleeping arrangements, meals, and materials. Scholarships are available. No one is turned away due to finances.

Registration deadline is October 23rd.

CARING & SHARING VOLUNTEERS

Caring and Sharing is a Goshen County organization run by local churches that serves residents who are in need of food. Caring and Sharing is asking for volunteers from St. Rose to help on Mondays and Thursdays throughout October and November. There are two ways to volunteer:

1. Caring and Sharing Office, 1:30-3:00, assisting clients by taking applications and other paperwork.
2. Caring and Sharing Pantry, 3:00, packing boxes with food for clients to pick up later from the police station.

The office and pantry are both located in the Lincoln Community Complex. If you are able to volunteer, please sign up on the Caring and Sharing calendar found in the back of church after Mass. No experience is necessary! For more information, you can call or text Caren at 307-715-0167. Thank you!

WOMEN'S STUDY GROUP

The Walking with Purpose women's study group will begin meeting Wednesday, October 9th from 7:00-8:15 pm in the meeting room of the Hall. This group is designed for women who want to grow in faith during the "busyness" of life. We will be discussing the book You're Amazing by Justin Fatica. If you are interested in joining the group and would like a copy of the book, please text Caren at 307-715-0167. Thank you!

ADULT EDUCATION

Fr. Ray's Major Players class meets each Monday at 6:15 pm. Fr. Drew's Saints Alive class also meets on Mondays at 7:00 pm. Deacon Rollie's class, focusing on the modern major apparitions of Mary, will begin on Wednesday, September 25 at 7:00 pm.

NOVENA

The Respect Life/St. Gianna Beretta Molla Novena will begin on Friday, September 27. The Novena will be prayed each day at Mass.

PRISON MINISTRY

LIVE THE LITURGY - WEEKLY INSPIRATION

"No servant can serve two masters." We struggle with where we put and give our allegiance. Who has the ultimate authority and claim over us? While our minds want to answer "God," our lives often reveal other conflicting allegiances. Because we are made in the image of God, we are not given a ticket of entitlement or privilege. On the contrary, we are given a level playing field where we are one among many and called to live just and trustworthy lives. To serve God is to serve others and to see the primary purpose and focus of our lives as being good stewards. As God lifts up the poor, so too do we. As much as we want the world and God to serve our own self advancement, we have to resist this temptation at all costs. Injustice has no place in the kingdom of God.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained...

When Jesus says, "You cannot serve both God and mammon," what does he mean? What is mammon?

When you hear Scripture proclaimed each Sunday, remember it wasn't originally written in English. Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek - these ancient tongues were the original language of our Old and New Testaments. Most of the time, all of the words are translated into our native language. Sometimes, a word or two is left in the original language. Such is the case in this Scripture passage.

Mammon is an ancient Aramaic word referring to money, wealth, or profit. Earthly wealth isn't bad in itself, nor does it automatically exclude us from being a disciple of Jesus. But what dominates our life? To serve money - that is, to seek accumulation of wealth for its own sake and to structure our lives around it - is morally problematic. What good is our wealth if it isn't at the service of others? What good is our wealth if its pursuit leads us to selfishness, obsession, greed, envy, and comparison? There are many things that can be opposed to our service of God - power, prestige, popularity. Ultimately, something in our lives will be our master. But there is only one God worth serving.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bulletin announcements for the Tri-Parish section of the bulletin are due by Monday evening at 5:00 pm. Parish specific announcements are needed by 5:00 pm on Wednesday in order to be included in the following weekend's bulletin. Announcements may be sent to Becky Moffat at triparish.bulletins@gmail.com or 307-277-9483.

The book we will now consider is "Roses Among Thorns." It is a collective of the writings of St. Francis De Sales. The book was published by Sophia Press and you will want to order a copy for yourself. Each chapter is a page or two pages, filled with spiritual advice that you can think about through the day. All I can do in the limited space I have in the bulletin is to write a sentence or two from each chapter. You can order a copy of the book by going to the Sophia Press website or Amazon.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

Chapter 9 "Oppressed in Conscience" - Our faults are like so many thorns, upon being brought forth by self-accusations, they are changed into fragrant blossoms. Our malice keeps them within our hearts and the goodness of the Holy Spirit expels them.

Chapter 10 "Accepting God's Will" - Consider God's will in your life, in all that befalls you for good or ill, and in all that can happen to you. Then, accept, praise and bless God for all of these and declare your intention always to honor his will.

Chapter 11 "The Visitation" - Just as Mary visited her cousin Elizabeth, so Jesus comes to us in Communion. Jesus is so often in me, why am I so rarely in Jesus.

Chapter 12 "Maintaining Peace of Soul" - Is it right for us to want to have interior peace without having first passed through the ordinary struggles of life?

Chapter 13 "Loving God" - If we truly love God we will want to speak to him often and about him to everyone we meet, and to spend time with him in the Blessed Sacrament. May he forever be the heart of our heart.

Chapter 14 "Bearing Jesus" - We live in the world for one reason only, to receive and to bear the sweet Jesus on our tongues, in our arms, on our shoulders, both interior and exterior. O how happy are they who carry him gently and faithfully.

Chapter 15 "Bearing our Crosses" - Your soul has movements of sadness, astonishment and anxiety because it is not yet sufficiently grounded in the love of the cross and in resignation to God's will.
