“Abraham replied, ‘My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented.’” - Lk 16:25

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say "nothing"? That's what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday's Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous "proofs" do? We know more than the law and the prophets - we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels "optional" when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ's teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need - in Him - to begin to live a virtuous life now.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE

Beginning Experience is a weekend program that offers healing and renewal to divorced, widowed and separated men and women. It is a non-profit, faith-based comprehensive program offered to all persons, regardless of religious preference. A Beginning Experience weekend offers support and direction to help resolve grief or anger that can follow the end of a marriage by divorce, separation or death. You can anticipate an intense reflective, possibly painful, but spiritually honest self-encounter. You will also find support, warm fellowship, and community. The next Beginning Experience weekend will be in Casper and starts promptly at 7:00 P.M. on Friday evening Oct. 25th and runs through Sunday afternoon around 4pm Oct. 27th. You must commit to the entire weekend. The donation we ask for the weekend is $150.00, which includes sleeping arrangements, meals, and materials. Scholarships are available. No one is turned away due to finances.

Registration deadline is October. 23rd.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

CCD classes for 3rd Grade - Confirmation are on Wednesdays from 7:00 - 8:15 pm.

Classes for Kindergarten, First Grade, and Eucharist will begin on Sunday, September 29. Classes are from 10:15 - 11:15 am.

You may register when you bring your child to their first class.

WOMEN'S STUDY GROUP

The Walking with Purpose women's study group will begin meeting Wednesday, October 9th from 7:00-8:15 pm in the meeting room of the Hall. This group is designed for women who want to grow in faith during the "busyness" of life. We will be discussing the book You're Amazing by Justin Fatica. If you are interested in joining the group and would like a copy of the book, please text Caren at 307-715-0167. Thank you!

LIFE CHAIN

Life Chain will be at the corner of Hwys 26 & 85 on Friday, October 4 from 4:30-5:30 pm. Life Chain is a peaceful and prayerful public witness of pro-life individuals standing for 60 minutes praying for our nation and for an end to abortion. It is a visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community that abortion kills children and that the Church supports the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception until natural death.

ADULT EDUCATION

Fr. Ray's Major Players class meets each Monday at 6:15 pm. Fr. Drew's Saints Alive class also meets on Mondays at 7:00 pm. Deacon Rollie's class, focusing on the modern major apparitions of Mary, is on Wednesdays at 7:00 pm.

LITTLE STORE

The Little Store will be having a sale the weekend of October 5-6 for Confirmation.

WCFD TORRINGTON

Wyoming Child & Family Development will be holding a developmental screening for children birth through 5 years old on October 11 and again on November 8. Wyoming Department of Health recommends that parents "Screen for Success" so that they can be aware of where their children are developmentally at least once a year. This is a free service and will look at all areas of development including hearing and vision. If you are interested in either of these dates OR to schedule an individual screening at your convenience, please call 532-7068 or 534-4720 to schedule an appointment for your little one.

ANIMAL BLESSING

Fr. Ray will bless animals outside of the church on Sunday, October 6 at 2:00 pm. All animals are welcome.

COFFEE & COOKIES

Come over to the hall after Mass on Sunday, October 13 for coffee, cookies, and fellowship.

LIVE THE LITURGY - WEEKLY INSPIRATION

People often think that if they witness something miraculous, it would bring them to a greater faith and motivate them for greater involvement. Such is not necessarily true, as coming to a real and authentic faith still requires that we struggle with ourselves a bit and change our approach to living. Authentic faith is acquired when we see wisdom and life in the words of the prophets and in the teachings of Jesus Christ. All of these point us to a God who has a particular set of priorities for how life is meant to be lived. We have to avoid the trap of complacency that is rooted in preserving our own self-interests and living lives that pursue "righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." (1 TM 6: 11) Complacency keeps us stuck in the status quo and prevents us from working toward respect for life, equality, and justice, and from advocating on behalf of the needs of the poor, the homeless, and the alien. Are you complacent?

Why do we do that?
Catholic Life Explained...

I volunteer every once in a while. How can I incorporate serving the poor in my everyday life?

In the Gospels, Jesus is very clear about emphasizing outreach to vulnerable persons on the margins of society. These may be the materially poor, the disabled, the lonely, or any others whose circumstances drive them from mainstream society. We can all respond to Christ's call to love by incorporating direct service into our regular life routine. Here are some ideas to find your niche:

Consider your life. Before you look for direct service opportunities, consider your schedule, commitment levels, and personal gifts. When can you help out and how regularly? Where have you volunteered in the past that has felt like a good fit? Do you have any particular skills or personality traits that lend you to particular work?

Do some research. There are a lot of structured ways you can get involved in your community. Your parish might have a social concerns outreach program. If not, ask friends and family. A simple online search for local nonprofits can also expose you to new opportunities.

Be open to God's invitation. The chance to serve may be closer than you think. Befriending an elderly neighbor, widowed and far from children, is an act of serving the poor. Keep your eyes and heart open!

October 15: Altar Server training, 6:30 pm.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bulletin announcements for the Tri-Parish section of the bulletin are due by Monday evening at 5:00 pm. Parish specific announcements are needed by 5:00 pm on Wednesday in order to be included in the following weekend's bulletin. Announcements may be sent to Becky Moffat at triparish.bulletins@gmail.com or 307-277-9483.

The book we will now consider is "Roses Among Thorns." It is a collective of the writings of St. Francis De Sales. The book was published by Sophia Press and you will want to order a copy for yourself. Each chapter is a page or two pages, filled with spiritual advice that you can think about through the day. All I can do in the limited space I have in the bulletin is to write a sentence or two from each chapter. You can order a copy of the book by going to the Sophia Press website or Amazon.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

Chapter 16 "Facing Temptation" - Do not fear temptations. Do not touch them and they will not offend you. Pass them by, and take no interest in them.

Chapter 17 "The Burden of Work" - When work becomes overwhelming we must turn to Jesus and beg him for his help so that what we do will be agreeable to him for his honor and glory.

Chapter 18 "Too Busy to Pray" - The lengths of our prayers should be measured by the amount of our work. We must accustom ourselves to making short prayers so habitual that we will never omit them.

Chapter 19 "Maintaining Peace of Soul" - It is better for you to assist at Mass every day than not to do so on the pretext that you can pray better at home.

Chapter 20 "Parents and Teachers" - We must suffer much from children and be unfailing in patience as we teach them.

Chapter 21 "A Devout Life" - From out of a hundred thousand delicious fruits, Eve chose the single one that was forbidden to her, and no doubt she would not have done so had it been permissible. In a word, we wish to serve God, but according to our will, not his.

Chapter 22 "Blessed Joseph" - Let us consider the greatness of this blessed saint, whom our hearts love because he nourished the love of our hearts and the heart of our love.

"Never get tired of doing little things for others. Sometimes those little things occupy the biggest part of their hearts."

-- St. Therese of Lisieux

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

How to Build a Culture of Life: Watching the news and reading the headlines, we may feel helpless seeing the heartbreaking lack of respect for human life. How do we respond? Changing the culture is a process of conversion that begins in our own hearts. When we encounter Christ, experience His love, and deepen our relationship with Him, we become more aware of our own immeasurable worth and that of others. His unchanging love is the source of our God-given dignity, which, therefore, cannot be taken away. When someone is facing great trials, we need to walk with them on their journey, intercede for them, and be open to sharing Christ's love however He directs. We simply need to follow where He leads.

For more information and to apply visit www.wmme.org or call Paul and Tracy 307-689-2820.

THE GIFT OF OUR GUARDIAN ANGELS

It's good to know we're not alone. This October 2nd we celebrate the feast of our guardian angels. This ancient belief has roots in Scripture. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus implies the special guiding care of the angels. "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father" (Matthew 18:10). Our guardian angels are given to us by God to protect and watch over us from the moment of our conception until the hour of death. Let's pray together to our own heavenly help: Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side to light, to guard, to rule, and to guide. Amen.
