Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" - Lk 17:17-18

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

©LPI

"Ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance ..." In the ancient world and into the Middle Ages, there was no treatment for leprosy. People thought it was wildly contagious and were suspicious of any skin diseases. Lepers were isolated from civil society. This isolation was upheld by the Mosaic Law. Should there be a healing from leprosy, the former leper was to present himself to a priest to certify the healing. Like Jesus commands, "Show yourselves to the priests." The person would then undergo a religious rite to be formally reintroduced to society. In other words, a leper got their life back. So why didn't they come back?

"As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him." Of the ten lepers healed by Christ, only one returns with a grateful heart. The others, perhaps, were thankful enough. Perhaps they couldn't believe their luck, and they hastened to the priests to confirm the healing. They were more than willing to leave their life of rejection and isolation behind. Why take any steps backward, when the way ahead was so attractive? An attitude like this is perhaps understandable, but few would admire it.

How about you? Do you come back? If you've ever had the experience of getting what you hoped and prayed for, you know that this can sometimes be easier said than done. When we've wanted something badly enough, how easy it can be to focus on the gift rather than the giver. The truth is, God is daily offering us gifts: the gift of our existence, of the created world, of family and friends, of modern conveniences. Even in times of distress, there is always something to be thankful for. This Sunday, give yourself a gratitude check. Count your blessings. Glorify God and thank Him for the gift of your life!

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE

Beginning Experience is a weekend program that offers healing and renewal to divorced, widowed and separated men and women. It is a non-profit, faith-based comprehensive program offered to all persons, regardless of religious preference. A Beginning Experience weekend offers support and direction to help resolve grief or anger that can follow the end of a marriage by divorce, separation or death. You can anticipate an intense reflective, possibly painful, but spiritually honest self-encounter. You will also find support, warm fellowship, and community. The next Beginning Experience weekend will be in Casper and starts promptly at 7:00 P.M. on Friday evening Oct. 25th and runs through Sunday afternoon around 4pm Oct. 27th. You must commit to the entire weekend. The donation we ask for the weekend is $150.00, which includes sleeping arrangements, meals, and materials. Scholarships are available. No one is turned away due to finances. Registration deadline is October. 23rd.

October is the month of the Rosary. This is a great time to start a daily rosary habit if you do not already have one. Today, we need Our Lady's intervention through the Holy Rosary to turn back the moral, spiritual and physical threats we face in our daily lives and as a nation.

PARISH COUNCIL

St. Rose Parish Council is seeking representatives from each parish group (Knights of Columbus, CCW, Our Lady of Guadalupe Society, Music Ministry, CCD, Prison Ministry, and a youth, to join and pray for unity and discern the mission of our parish. The Council is focused on meeting the spiritual needs of our Parish and is not a decision making group. If you are interested please see Fr. Ray.

ALL SAINTS DAY PARTY

Our liturgical year is full of reasons to celebrate! This year, the Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring the first annual All Saints Party on Friday, November 1, 2019 following the 5:30 pm Mass. There will be food, games, prizes, and opportunities to learn about many saints. You can even dress like a saint of your choosing, if you wish to do so. ### CARING AND SHARING

Caring and Sharing is requesting canned tomatoes, chili beans, canned peas, cereal, and canned fruit. All donations can be left at the back of the church and are much appreciated! Thank you!

ADULT EDUCATION

Deacon Rollie's class, focusing on the modern major apparitions of Mary is on Wednesdays, from 7:00 pm - 8:15 pm. The class runs the same time as CCD classes and is a great way for parents to learn while your children are learning. It is not too late to join!

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Stations of the Cross are held each Friday at 5:30 pm. Every Friday remains a special day of penitential observance throughout the year and attending Stations of the Cross is one way to participate in this practice.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained...

How can I practice gratitude in my everyday life?

God has given each of us many blessings. Fostering an "attitude of gratitude" might be easier than you think. Simple, concrete practices can help us to be more thankful more often. Incorporate it into your dinner with your spouse, or as you tuck the kids into bed at night. "What are three things you're thankful for today?" Make a habit of writing one note a week to someone special in your life, thanking them for how they've impacted you. This is also a good practice in the workplace. Consider opening your weekly meetings with a quick round of gratitude sharing. "I'm grateful John helped me with that last-minute change to my presentation last week. I wouldn't have finished it in time for the meeting without him."

Another way is to designate a few minutes to thank God. This could be the first bit of your daily prayer time or after you receive communion on Sundays. You can also integrate it into your daily routine. How about while brushing your teeth? There's probably nothing so important it can't wait two minutes. Brush your teeth, quiet your mind, and thank God from your heart for His blessings throughout the day. Get creative! Any moment is an opportunity to praise and thank God.

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility: We often assume parenthood happens easily after "I do," but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility: after giving birth to one or more children, they are unable to have another. If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that God is with you, and that He has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple.

You are not alone either; His Church desires to walk with you. The full article at respectlifeprogram.org/navigating-infertility contains compassionate, practical guidance, intended primarily for married couples struggling with infertility, though others may also find it to be informative.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

The book we will now consider is "Roses Among Thorns." It is a collective of the writings of St. Francis De Sales. The book was published by Sophia Press and you will want to order a copy for yourself. Each chapter is a page or two pages, filled with spiritual advice that you can think about through the day. All I can do in the limited space I have in the bulletin is to write a sentence or two from each chapter. You can order a copy of the book by going to the Sophia Press website or Amazon.

Chapter 29 "In the Desert" - We must not spend too much time thinking and examining ourselves about the origins of our spiritual dryness.

Chapter 30 "Christian Liberty" - No privation can sadden the one whose heart is attached to nothing. I do not say that he never loses it, but that he quickly regains it.

Chapter 31 "Perseverance in Prayer" - You should not reproach yourself if you are not finding consolation in meditation, but proceed gently and with humility and patience, not in any way injuring your spirit.

Chapter 32 "Judge Your Feelings" - Feelings, even pleasant ones can be from the evil one or from God. They are from God if they do not make us rest in them, if they do not make us proud, if they do not make us weakened.

Chapter 33 "Be Patient" - Be patient with everyone, but especially with yourself. Do not trouble yourself about your imperfections. Always have the courage to pick yourself up and begin every day and never think that you have done enough.

Chapter 34 "Pardon Your Heart" - We must always desire to carry out our spiritual exercises well, both prayers and the exercise of the virtues, and we must never be troubled, anxious or surprised if we fail to do so. Our failures are caused by our infirmity, which we will never be able to leave behind during our mortal life.
