"For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." - Mk 10:45

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

DLPI

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Jesus asks a similar question in different Gospel passages, but the request of James and John is not repeated on any other occasion. "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." They ask not for knowledge of God, not for crooked limbs to be straightened nor for the blind to see. They ask for power and authority. Jesus' response should trouble them. "You do not know what you are asking." "Can you drink the cup that I drink?" Jesus asks. "They said to him, 'We can.'" But what is Christ's cup? Could James and John have possibly known it or understood it here at the height of Jesus' ministry? Jesus' cup is the cup of trial, of difficulty, of public ridicule. His final, thirsting sip occurs as he hangs on the cross. In Christ's kingdom, drinking his cup and participating in his life are not the sharing of power the way we are accustomed. Jesus flips their paradigm. "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." The cup of Jesus is the cup of giving oneself. "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." As Christians, how easy it can be to want the acclaim of good deeds, the gratitude for volunteering, the attention for donating to the church. "It shall not be so among you." If you are overlooked, offer thanks to God for imitating Jesus, rather than bitter complaint at someone else's oversight. Look for opportunities to do good needs unnoticed. This week, consider one way you can drink the cup of Jesus!

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

We celebrate this day by remembering the revitalizing mission at the heart of our Christian faith – to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Persistence is really a virtue and the face of a strong character. We all have heard stories of people who have done incredible things in the presence of obstacles that appear insurmountable. These are real stories of real people who have lost limbs or faced other physical challenges. They have become amazing athletes and sometimes saints who overcame incredible difficulties in order to proclaim God's love and presence. Where there is a strong will, there is a way. What do we want Jesus to do for us? Let your faith inspire you to find the courage to love in the face of bitterness, the faith to persevere when tempted to give up, and the hope to move forward when falling into despair. Jesus saves us from ourselves and gives us the clear vision to see as God sees.

Among the many Judges of Israel, perhaps none was greater than the Judge Deborah. How much do you know about this wise leader? Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) Deborah was a wife, prophet and judge of Israel.
- 2) She met with Barak, a general of the Israelite army and told him what he had to do in order to defeat the Canaanite King.
- 3) Barak refused to follow her orders unless she herself road with them in battle.
- 4) Deborah assured Barak that if he did not go into battle that he would not receive the glory and praise of the people.
- 5) Barak summoned 100,000 men to ride into battle, but God told him to fight the battle with only 500 men.
- 6) As it turned out, Heber the Kenite had detached himself from Cain, the descendants of Hobab, Moses' father-in-law, and had set up a tent near the battle field.
- 7) Sisera, the general of the great Canaanite Kingdom, heard that Barak was moving to mount Tabor with a few men, so he rode out to meet him with his goo iron chariots and all his forces.
- 8) Deborah told Barak when to make his charge and the Lord did the rest.
- 9) Barak was able to kill everyone of the great Canaanite army.
- 10) The great general of the defeated Canaanite army fled the battle.
- 11) For the exciting conclusion stay tuned for Deborah, Part II next weekend!
