How are your Lenten resolutions? By the time week two rolls around, plenty of well-meaning people have skipped, neglected, or outright forgotten their Lenten resolutions at least once. It can be easy to start excusing our Lenten commitments altogether. Last week we saw Jesus driven into the desert. This Sunday, we see Jesus leading his disciples to an equally barren place: he "led them up a high mountain apart by themselves." But what happens there? "And he was transfigured before them and his clothes became dazzling white." Today's Gospel reminds us of the goal. We don't enter into the desert for the sake of suffering, but for the sake of transformation.

Mountain imagery is prevalent throughout Scripture. The sacrifice of Isaac, Moses receiving the 10 Commandments, Elijah's revelation of God as a tiny whispering sound: all these occur on the mountaintop. Mountains are strenuous to hike. To assist the traveler in the ascent, trails often involve switchbacks. These lead the traveler back and forth across the mountainside, sometimes appearing as if hardly any ground is gained. Perhaps Peter, James, and John hiked a similar path as Jesus led them up the side of Mount Tabor.

A climb is difficult. A climb in a barren place leaves you thirsty, exhausted, and quite possibly frustrated or discouraged. Yet this is precisely how Jesus leads his closest disciples. Why? Because he has something to reveal to them. Practically speaking, Jesus needed to bring Peter, James and John away from the crowds for this revelation of glory to remain hidden. There are spiritual truths we will encounter only if we pass through difficulty. So let's persevere this Lent! Today's Gospel invites us to trust that, if we persevere in following Jesus, he'll lead us to something beautiful and glorious as well.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

ROSARY

Every Sunday at 10:15 am the vocations committee will be saying the rosary for our adopted seminarian Clark Lenz. All are welcome to join us.

Dear Padre

Our guitar group plays music five minutes before the opening song at Mass. By the time the interminable Gloria is sung, I already have a headache! Why so much music?

At Mass, the faithful “form one body, whether in hearing the Word of God, or in taking part in the prayers and in the singing, or above all by the common offering of the Sacrifice and by participating together at the Lord’s table” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 96). Thus, liturgical music can be a form of prayer, uniting the assembly in praise to God. Ideally, it’s “a particularly apt way to express a joyful heart, accentuating the solemnity of the celebration and fostering the sense of a common faith and a shared love” (On Keeping the Lord’s Day Holy [Dies Domini], 50) by Pope John Paul II.

However, this ideal isn’t always reality. To address your question, let us divide humanity into two groups: people who like to sing and people who don’t; those who sing in full voice in the shower and those who prefer monastic silence. Every congregation includes both groups. While not everyone is naturally inclined to make a joyful noise, most people appreciate music’s power to give voice to what’s deep in the human heart.

Some may even feel there’s not enough music at Mass instead of too much. Nevertheless, happy the liturgical ministers who know when the sum of the individual Mass parts—sung or otherwise—can become too tedious. And blessed are the music makers who know the power of silence, an instrumental, or an optional recessional song, even for solemn occasions.

WALKING WITH YOUR SAINT THROUGH LENT

Lent can quickly become full of well-intentioned penances which could lead to feeling discouraged right away. Using your 2018 Saint Companion as an example and guide during Lent will be a divine support for you. Every saint will tell you that they did nothing by themselves. It was only through the gifts of God's grace that they grew in obedience to God's will for them. St. Francis de Sales, in his Sermon for the First Sunday of Lent, 1622, said: "Temptation entered the very ranks of the Apostles themselves. Why, then, are you astonished if it attacks you? Console yourself, I pray, and take courage. Now is not the time to rest. "But I am so imperfect" you say. I believe it, indeed! Therefore, do not trouble yourself about perfection, rather be armed with the armor of faith. Pray confidently. My advice is that henceforth we live in heart, intention and confidence lodged forever in the pierced side of the Savior."

If we connect to God's grace through the sacraments and daily prayer, we will bear good fruits. Our Saint Companions will intercede for us, pray for us and help us be more attentive to God's holy will for us. May you grow in friendship with your 2018 Saint Companion walking with him/her to the Last Supper, to the Garden of Olives, to the Trial, to the Cross, to the Burial and to the Resurrection!

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER WEEKEND

During this Lent, let us all ask the Lord: 'Make our hearts like your own'...a heart which is firm, merciful, attentive, and generous, a heart which is not closed..." –Pope Francis. Open your heart to your spouse and attend an upcoming Worldwide Marriage Encounter. No matter where you are at on your marriage journey this weekend has something powerful to offer you. The next weekend is in River-ton Mar 2-4, 2018. For more information and to apply visit www.wwme.org or call Paul and Tracy 307-689-2820.
