Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

CLPI

As we march through Lent, it can be easy to think it's all about sacrifice. No chocolate, no alcohol, no meat on Fridays. Yet here, only in the second week of Lent, we have the story of the transfiguration. This reading reminds us of the "why" behind what we do. We don't fast from dessert to lose weight. We don't donate money or serve others because it's merely a nice thing to do. Lent is about transformation!

Peter, James, and John trudged up the mountainside behind Jesus. This must have been a difficult hike, because when they reached the top, "Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep." Despite our best efforts, perhaps we, too, can be asleep to the deeper meaning of the Lenten season. Jesus is transfigured while they slumber, but eventually they become "fully awake, [and] they saw his glory and the two men standing with him."

This is no small thing! The disciples witness Jesus in his divine splendor and see the miraculous apparitions of Moses and Elijah. The entire mountain becomes a spiritual breakthrough. "A cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud." These symbols are present in the Old Testament. They are present on Mount Sinai when Moses prayed alone and received the 10 Commandments. Elijah had a similar experience when he prayed alone before God. But here are ordinary men, former fishermen, who have been drawn up into an adventure beyond their wildest expectations. Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah, the fulfillment of all that came before. But Christianity is not the religion of the elite, where only the select few are allowed to participate. We are all invited into spiritual transformation. Lent is a privileged time for this!

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) On the night that Jesus was betrayed he offered the Passover Meal with his disciples.
- 2) During the Passover Meal, Jesus transformed this Last Supper into the memorial of his voluntary offering to the Father for the salvation of men.
- 3) At the end of the Meal Jesus said, "This is my body which is given for you."
- 4) Jesus then said, "This is my blood of the covenant which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."
- 5) The Eucharist that Christ institutes at that moment will be the memorial of his sacrifice.
- 6) At the Last Supper Jesus institutes his apostles as priests of the New Covenant.
- 7) The cup of the New Covenant, which Jesus anticipated when he offered himself at the Last Supper, is afterwards accepted by him from his Father's hands in his agony in the garden at Gethsemane.
- 8) During the time of prayer, Jesus made himself obedient until death.
- 9) Jesus experienced the horror that death represented for his human nature.
- 10) By accepting in his human will that the Father's will be done, he accepts his death as redemptive, for he bore our sins in his body on the tree.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our minds are often preoccupied with the things of this world, and we forget about the things of heaven. We live our lives as if what we see before us is all there is and almost place the truth of eternity on hold until it is absolutely necessary to confront it. We fail to see the connection between earth and heaven and to see the road of transformation we are all called to travel. When Jesus was transfigured before his disciples, they saw the truth of who he was. Earth and heaven were wed that day, just as they will one day come together for us. God desires to transfigure us as well, changing our earthly body into our heavenly one. We miss our true destiny if we don't factor this into the choices we make and the paths we choose to walk.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained...

Who invented the Stations of the Cross?

The first Stations of the Cross were walked by Jesus himself on the way to Calvary. Known as the "Via Dolorosa" ("The Way of Suffering") or the "Via Crucis" ("The Way of the Cross"), it was marked out from the earliest times and was a traditional walk for pilgrims who came to Jerusalem. The early Christians in Jerusalem would walk the same pathway that Jesus walked, pausing for reflection and prayer. Later, when Christians could not travel to the Holy Land, artistic depictions of "The Way of the Cross" were set up in churches, or outside, and Christians would walk from station to station, reading the Gospel account of the Passion or simply praying and reflecting on each event. While the content or place of each station had changed, the intention was to make a mini-pilgrimage and follow - literally - in the footsteps of Jesus.

This devotion became better known in the Middle Ages, and the Franciscans are credited with its spread. Lent is a time when many people make the Stations, and some churches present Passion plays or Living Stations. But anyone can pray the Stations at any time. It is a simple and personal reflection on the passion of Jesus and what it means to us.

Answers from March 10:

1) False, Jesus fasted and prayed for 40 days and invites us to do the same during the Lenten Season as seen in #540 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church; 2) True, as seen in #540 of the CCC; 3) True, as seen in #540 of the CCC; 4) True, there is no other vigil quite like the Easter Vigil, during this Vigil the Church re-reads and re-lives the great events of salvation history in the "today" of her liturgy as seen in #1095 of the CCC; 5) True, as seen in #1438 of the CCC; 6) True, as seen in #1438 of the CCC; 7) True, no meat, no chicken, but lots of healthy vegetables, fruits and fish; 8) True; 9) True; 10) True. These last three regulations concerning Lent should challenge us to go beyond what is required and to give ourselves totally to God during this Lenten Season.

Catholic Trivia (Answers)

R.C.I.A.

If you or someone you know is interested in joining the Catholic Church please contact Deacon Rollie at 307-532-1571.

SCAM

If you or someone you know gets an email from a member of our clergy requesting a monetary favor, this is a scam! We have had several incidents of someone posing as a member of our clergy, requesting iTunes gift cards, wiring of funds, urgent favors, etc. These emails look legitimate initially because the sender name will have a clergy name in it. The scam email address we are aware of is reverendraymoss@gmail.com, however other fake addresses may be used as well. Unfortunately due to the way this is being done it is very difficult to stop those responsible for perpetrating this scam. If you get one of these emails the best option is to block the sender and report as spam. If you have any questions please contact the Parish Office.

COME & SEE BENEDICTINE WEEKENDS

Single, divorced or widowed Catholic women age 18 and older are invited to participate in weekend retreats at St. Martin Monastery, Rapid City SD. This is an opportunity to "come and see" religious life and community living. Benedictine Weekends are held the 3rd weekend of every month (except June and July). For more information contact Sr. Mary Wegher at (605) 343-8011 or email her at srmarywegher@yahoo.com.
