Weekend Mass Times

St. Anthony	Saturday 4 pm Sunday 8 am
St. Leo	Sunday 10:30 am
St. Rose	Saturday 5:30 pm Sunday 8 & 10 am

"He stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and terrified." What was so terrifying about being wished peace? How ironic that the disciples were so scared right at the moment that Jesus was offering them peace.

The fact is that they didn't understand what was going on. They were already aware at this point that Jesus had risen from the dead, and two of them had just had a powerful encounter with him on the road to Emmaus. But now, he suddenly appeared before them, in a manner that was not only totally unexpected, but also apparently physically impossible. This is why they thought they were seeing a ghost. It just didn't make sense.

Jesus reassured them with concrete actions. He told them to look at him and to touch him. He wanted his disciples to be comforted by his real physical presence among them. He wanted them to come into contact with his entire being, not just the abstract idea of his presence. Once they did this, they were "incredulous for joy and were amazed." The peace that he wished for them was now complemented by great joy. It just took a while to sink in.

This may be the case for us at times too. We may not understand the mysterious ways in which Jesus is present in our lives. Sometimes he is hidden in what Mother Teresa called "the distressing disguise." His Spirit may be present, wishing to bring us peace right in the midst of stress, sickness, anguish, or pain, but we may not recognize him at first. But just because he may not "show up" in the way we expect doesn't mean he isn't with us. The risen Christ also wants to give us the gift of peace.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

ARNOLD QUINONEZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Arnold Quinonez Memorial Scholarship applications, sponsored by the Guadalupe Society, are available to St. Rose of Lima Parish candidates for high school graduates, first time college freshmen or a continuing education student in an institution of higher education. The scholarship may be used for expenses in any accredited two or four-year college, university or proprietary school approved by the scholarship committee. Priority deadline is April 30, 2018. Applications may be obtained from Maria Quinonez or in the church office. For questions call 532-5265 or 532-2124.

2018 WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

On Sunday, April 22, the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- Encourage young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's Call.
- Consider signing up for a Holy Hour from 1-6.

ROSARY

Every Sunday at 10:15 am the vocations committee will be saying the rosary for our adopted seminarian Clark Lenz. All are welcome to join us.

Dear Padre

I read my horoscope in the daily newspaper faithfully. Is there anything wrong with this? I don't take what it says seriously, but sometimes the predictions do come true.

Many people enjoy reading their daily horoscopes as a form of entertainment. Like you, they don't take it seriously. When it's approached in this lighthearted way, there is no sin. Others, however, take their horoscopes seriously. Perhaps they don't realize what might underlie their fascination with it. Could it be a desire to escape responsibility? It's a cop-out to believe horoscope advice like, "If the position of the stars makes you act a certain way, then you're not responsible for your actions." This thinking doesn't acknowledge that God, as Lord of the universe, is the creator of these stars and their movements. It's absurd to ascribe mystical powers to the stars themselves as if they could influence us independently of God's providence. What about predictions that come true? Reread that horoscope and you'll usually find it was worded in such a general way that it would fit almost any situation. There's also the aspect of the self-fulfilling prophecy. If you think you're going to have a certain type of day, you are more likely to have that type of day. Your approach affects your day, not an outside force.

The future will always contain unknowns. For Christians, however, the unknown is cushioned by the belief that all things are in the providential hands of a loving God.

Jesus has risen! Truly He has risen! What great mysteries we are called to ponder during this Easter Season, as we prepare for Pentecost Sunday. Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) Thomas was the first apostle to see Jesus after the resurrection.
- 2) Peter and James ran to the tomb when Mary told them she found it empty.
- 3) Jesus appeared first to Mary Magdalene on Easter Sunday.
- 4) Jesus asked the apostles to meet him in Bethlehem.
- 5) Jesus met the apostles while they were fishing and he told them to throw the net on the other side of the boat, and they caught 153 large fish.
- 6) Jesus appeared only to a few, those who would be his witnesses.
- 7) When Peter saw the tomb it was empty.
- 8) It is never recorded in Scripture that Jesus appeared to his mother.
- 9) Since Jesus was divine he was able to rise from the dead, but since he was human he had to die again.
- 10) The center of our faith is Jesus Christ, who died and was buried, rose from the dead and ascended to His Father's right hand so that they could send the Holy Spirit upon us.

COME & SEE BENEDICTINE WEEKENDS

Single, divorced or widowed Catholic women age 18 and older are invited to participate in weekend retreats at St. Martin Monastery, Rapid City SD. Good News!

April 15, 2018

Third Sunday of Easter

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 Jn 2:1-5A; Lk 24:35-48

The glorified Jesus is not easy for the apostles to recognize. There is a deep truth here. The Twelve are startled and terrified to see Jesus again. In fact, they even think they are seeing a ghost. Their fear and lack of faith makes it impossible to see him for who he is—their resurrected Savior. Before they can truly see, they need to first accept him and believe.

And how does Jesus prove his identity to them? He shows them his wounds, the signs of his suffering and crucifixion. We often want to hide our wounds. We are ashamed of them and afraid of how others will react if they really knew. But Jesus, unashamed, shows his wounds and uses them as signs of who he is.

There is a message for us here. We need to allow our brokenness to find fullness and resurrection in Christ. It is at that point that the love of God is perfected in us. First we need to acknowledge our wounds and not bury or hide them. Then we need to admit our need for healing. Finally, through prayer, confession, and help from those who love us, we allow Jesus' redemptive love to wash over our wounds and give us renewal, rebirth, and healing.

As a result, like Jesus, we will no longer be ashamed of our wounds, but rather we will share them as evidence of the power of Jesus Christ.
