Weekend Mass Times

St. Anthony	Saturday 4 pm Sunday 8 am
St. Leo	Sunday 10:30 am
St. Rose	Saturday 5:30 pm Sunday 8 & 10 am

We all have things in our lives that don't belong there. Maybe it's the poor way we allow someone to treat us, maybe it's a habitual sin, maybe it's a pattern of thought or attitude that traps us in a cycle of regret, anger, or an inability to forgive. Jesus has bold words for us today: "Take these out of here."

When we hear the story of the Cleansing of the Temple, it can be easy to look down on the animal-sellers and money-changers. However, they set up shop in the Temple for a very practical purpose. People needed to buy animals to sacrifice, they were going to sacrifice them in the Temple: ergo, quite a convenient, successful marketplace! For many of us, the negative influences in our lives don't come out of nowhere. We might have considered them quite practical and reasonable initially. We wanted to keep the peace, so we allowed someone to talk to us disrespectfully. A person hurt us deeply and we weren't prepared to let go of our resentment right away. Over time, these can fester and corrupt our inner life in a way we didn't expect.

The response of Jesus is a strong one. "He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area." God wants us to be whole, healthy human beings. He knows how destructive it is for our souls to be caught up in sin -- our own sin and those of others. God's love for us is startlingly fierce. In a few short weeks we will celebrate the culmination of that courageous love as Jesus goes to his death on the cross.

In the meantime, Lent is an opportunity for cleansing and renewal. If we've allowed into our lives things that don't belong, let today be the day we ask Jesus to clear them out. It's not always easy or pretty, but it's necessary for our hearts to function the way they were made. God will turn our tables over if we ask Him to.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Answers from February 25

1) True, in fact we celebrate his feast day on March 19; 2) False, in Matthew 1:16 we are told that Joseph was the husband of Mary and in Matthew 1:19 we are again told that Joseph was Mary's husband at that time; 3) True, in Matthew 1:20-21 we are told of the Annunciation to Joseph; 4) False, in Matthew 2:13 we are told that an angel had told Joseph in a dream that he had to flee to Egypt to save the life of Jesus; 5) True, in those days carpenters had to know many trades to make a living; 6) True, in Matthew 1:20 Joseph is addressed by the angel as Joseph, son of David, and it was because of his family ties to David, that he had to go to Bethlehem as Luke 2:4 tells us; 7) True, there is a beautiful painting of Joseph holding a Church since he was declared to be the patron saint of the Church by Pope Pius IX in 1870; 8) True, it has been said that if you bury a statue of St. Joseph in your front yard that he will sell your house fast; 9) True, it was Pope Benedict XV who declared St. Joseph the patron saint of workers and Pope Pius XI who established the feast of St. Joseph the Worker; 10) False, tradition tells us that he died in the arms of Mary and Jesus as an old man.

ROSARY

Every Sunday at 10:15 am the vocations committee will be saying the rosary for our adopted seminarian Clark Lenz. All are welcome to join us.

Dear Padre

Much time is given to purify the vessels after Communion. At another parish, two people bring the cloth and unfold it on the altar before the gifts are presented. Shouldn't the preparation and cleanup of the table be less significant than the Eucharist itself?

Our liturgy is a beautiful expression of our faith, and we value its simplicity and grace. When we celebrate a liturgy, we keep in mind the nature of a particular part and its relationship to the whole celebration. We want the Eucharist to be the clear, central part of the liturgy.

The preparation of the gifts is a practical rite that gets us set for the eucharistic prayer; it is done with simplicity and few additional gestures. The Roman Missal says an "acolyte or another lay minister arranges the corporal on the altar" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 139) and places the chalice and other vessels. It seems appropriate for laypeople to help dress the altar, especially if they assist the entire Mass. Their actions should be inconspicuous and not extend the rite. These ministers can be lay faithful because they are encouraged to present the bread and wine, emphasizing the inclusive nature of the Eucharist (GIRM 140, 141).

The purification of vessels is tricky because it must be done by a priest, a deacon, or an instituted acolyte. Since churches use several vessels, this action can take time and be overemphasized. However, its placement in the Mass is flexible, taking place "after Communion, or after Mass" (GIRM 279) and should be "done briefly and inconspicuously" (Introduction to the Order of Mass, 138). These pastoral suggestions enable us to leave the purification of the vessels until after Mass so we maintain a proper focus on the Eucharist and the meditation that follows. —Fr. John K. Schmidt, CSsR

LIVE THE LITURGY

How seriously do we take the Ten Commandments? Many today adopt a free spirit approach to life and resist conforming their thoughts and actions to established guidelines and principles. We all need direction. Those who travel realize how much easier journeys can be when equipped with the proper directions. The Ten Commandments are God's proper directions for us to assist us in living our lives as his children. We are given the example of Jesus, the living temple. Jesus allows us to share in his intimate relationship with his Father so that we can more quickly find our way to him. Guidelines and structure are important. Lent reminds us we are created in a certain way and are meant to live our lives in God.

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE OF WYOMING

Beginning Experience is a weekend program that offers healing and renewal to divorced, widowed and separated men and women. It is a non-profit, faith-based comprehensive program offered to all persons, regardless of religious preference. A Beginning Experience weekend offers support and direction to help resolve grief or anger that can follow the end of a marriage by divorce, separation or death. The weekend can be a time for a real awakening, a re-evaluation, and a new beginning. Beginning Experience is a positive experience of hope. You can anticipate an intense reflective, possibly painful, but spiritually honest self-encounter. You will also find support, warm fellowship, and community. The next Beginning Experience weekend will be in Casper and starts promptly at 7:00 pm on Friday evening April 27, 2018 and runs through Sunday afternoon around 4 pm April 29, 2018. You must commit to the entire weekend. The donation we ask for the weekend is $150.00, which includes sleeping arrangements, meals, and materials. Scholarships are available. No one is turned away due to finances. Registration deadline is April 25, 2018. Contact these team members for more information. What was the agony at Gethsemani all about? When I began this exercise I was looking at something different, then it dawned on me how rich one paragraph of the Catechism can be. All of the answers can be found in #612 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) In the Last Supper Jesus offered himself to the Father, at Gethsemane Jesus received the cup of the New Covenant from his Father.
- 2) It was this cup of the New Covenant that made Jesus obedient to his Father unto death.
- 3) Jesus prayed that this cup might pass from him, thus expressing the horror that death represented for his human nature.
- 4) Jesus' human nature was destined for eternal life just like our human nature is.
- 5) Our human nature is filled with sin which is the cause of death.
- 6) The reason Jesus died was that he took our sins in his body.
- 7) Jesus' human nature was perfectly exempt from sin in his life.
- 8) Jesus' human nature was assumed by the divine person of the Author of Life which is why it was without sin.
- 9) Only when Jesus accepted in his human will that the Father's will be done, was he able to accept his death as redemptive for all of us.
- 10) Jesus took all of our sins in his body on the tree, this means all of the sins from the ages past and all of the sins that will be committed in the future.
