St. Rose	Saturday 5:30 pm Sunday 8 & 10 am

"So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him." What did Zebedee think about all of this? His sons and his partners, James and John, suddenly left their post and followed Jesus. So there he stood in the boat with a crew of employees, but not one of his sons. We can't help but wonder whether Zebedee was in favor of this promise that his heirs would become "fishers of men." Most likely, this event was the cause of some familial tension.

Throughout the Gospels, Jesus instructs us to love and serve others for the love of God. But the Lord also makes it clear that our devotion to him is meant to trump our devotion to anything-or anyone-else. For our part, we are called to allow this divine allegiance to exist in those we love, even when it means a sacrifice for us as well. Parents for example, like Zebedee, are called to encourage their children to follow the Lord's call. A son or daughter's vocation to religious life certainly exemplifies this kind of sacrifice for a parent who might have had a different plan in mind. But in truth every son and daughter has a vocation from God and parents have the opportunity to support and assist their children as they seek to hear and follow God's special plan for their lives.

We don't know for sure how Zebedee responded to the vocation of his sons, but we know that James and John were counted among the Twelve Apostles and that their devotion and dedication helped to spread the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Regardless of what he might have thought as he stood in that boat, we can be quite sure that looking back now, Zebedee can rejoice heartily in the choice of his sons to leave their nets and follow Christ.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

CATHOLIC YOUTH RETREAT

Jesus' loving presence is the focus of the Wyoming Catholic Youth Retreat (WCYR). Youth and young adults, ages 13-30, are invited to become better acquainted with Jesus from Feb. 16-18, 2018, at St. Anthony Tri-Parish School in Casper.

In an effort to inspire that important relationship, the WCYR weekend includes continual Eucharistic adoration, an inspiring presentation of the Eucharist, devotion to our Blessed Mother and learning the beauty of the Catholic faith.

There also are talks, music, age-based breakout sessions, testimonies, an opportunity to go to Reconciliation and a chance to meet other young people.

The Wyoming retreat, now in its 18th year, places the Eucharist at the center of personal and community living.

Lunch and dinner are provided on Saturday. The $45 registration fee includes the cost for the meals.

However, overnight accommodations are up to participants. All youth under 18 years must be accompanied by a chaperone.

For more information about the retreat, registration or for other questions, call Gerise Vignaroli at 307-234-9091 or 307-258-3221; visit wyomingyouthretreat.com, or check out the Wyoming Youth Retreat Facebook page.

Dear Padre

Whenever I try to pray, I'm plagued with a thousand distractions. How can I learn to control my mind better?

Maybe you're trying too hard. You've heard how some baseball hitters press when they're trying to come out of a slump. Their very effort to overcome their problem makes them tighten up more. They are so worried about the mechanics of their swing, stance, or grip that they can't hit the ball. That's why their coach might advise them to stay loose in the batter's box. We could use the same advice in our approach to prayer. Do your best to pray well, but don't be too upset if your prayer is not "perfect." Some scrupulous Catholics will repeat a prayer if their mind wanders the first time through, but this isn't advisable. I suggest that you make a good intention, say your prayer and, even if your mind wanders, don't repeat it. Remember that distractions are as natural as breathing, and even the saints couldn't pray without them. When a distraction comes, treat it as you would a fly buzzing around your head. Occasionally shoo it away, but don't spend all your time and concentration on it. The good Lord can read your heart. He loves you just as you are, distracted mind and all.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please submit announcements for the Tri-Parish bulletin by Wednesday at 10:00 am for inclusion in the following weekend's bulletin. Announcements may be sent to Becky Moffat at triparish.bulletins@gmail.com or 307-277-9483.

In the Third Part of the Catechism of the Catholic Church we look at the New Law and all of its implications for our salvation. How well do you know this New Law? Answer True or False to the following.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) The Law of the Gospel "fulfills," refines, surpasses and leads the Old Law to its perfection.
- 2) The Lord's Sermon on the Mount does not add new external precepts, but proceeds to reform the heart.
- 3) The New Law practices the acts of religion and has its own prayer, the Our Father.
- 4) One could add Romans 12-15 to the Lord's Sermon on the Mount.
- 5) The New Law is called a law of love because it makes us act out of love infused by the Holy Spirit.
- 6) Besides its precepts, the New Law also includes the evangelical counsels which are poverty, chastity, and obedience.
- 7) The evangelical counsels manifest the living fullness of charity, which is never satisfied with not giving more.
- 8) The New Law consists essentially in the precepts of love of God and neighbor.
- 9) The Gospel thus brings the Law to its fullness through imitation of the perfection of the heavenly Father, through forgiveness of enemies and prayer for persecutors.
- 10) The Law of the Gospel requires us to make the decisive choice between the "two ways" and to put into practice the words of the Lord.
