SUNDAY OF ADVENT

"And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy." - Lk 1:43-44

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPi

Here we are, mere days from Christmas, and we hear a Gospel anticipating the birth of another child. Mary has received word that her cousin Elizabeth is with child. Pregnant as she is, Mary "set out and traveled to the hill country in haste." She has recently received the greatest news of her life - that she is to be mother to the Messiah by the power of the Holy Spirit - but her concern is for her cousin in need. Through God's grace, Elizabeth turns it into an opportunity to honor the coming Christ. "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." Yet Mary's example of selflessness should inspire us.

As Christmas draws near, there is plenty of goodness to anticipate for many of us. We'll reunite with family and friends, uphold time-honored traditions, swap stories old and new, exchange gifts, and welcome Jesus at the Christmas liturgy. These are wonderful things! Of course, they probably all come with their own to-do list. Shop for last-minute gifts, pick up recipe ingredients, ready the guest room, or pack your own bags. Mary probably had things to do as well. She had a lot to consider, for one thing. How do you plan to tell your parents you're pregnant, but no man was involved? When Joseph finds out, who will care for the practical needs of you and your child? Into what may have been a chaos of questions, Mary receives news that someone is in need. She goes immediately. In these final days before Christmas, stay watchful and awake! You never know when God might invite you to welcome, hospitality, and compassion. It might be tempting to reject the opportunity for your own needs. Follow the example of Mary! If God is providing you an opportunity to love, He will provide the means to accomplish all your other tasks. This Christmas season, may you too hear, "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

As we draw closer to our celebration of Christmas it is time to check out how much we know about Christmas. Answer True or False to the following.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) Christmas was once celebrated on May 20.
- 2) The pope celebrated Christmas once on December 25 and it caught on in the Latin Church.
- 3) Priests are given the privilege of offering three Masses on Christmas Day.
- 4) In the 4th Century the pope began to say three Masses on Christmas Day, the midnight Mass, and early morning Mass at the Church of St. Anastasia, and the final Mass later in the day at the Vatican Basilica.
- 5) The feast of St. Anastasia is celebrated on December 25.
- 6) The season of Christmas is extended from the midnight Mass to Epiphany.
- 7) The first known mention of the Christmas tree was from Germany in 1605.
- 8) The manger in which Jesus was born can still be seen at the Liberian Basilica in Rome.
- 9) During the Christmas Season the priest will wear white vestments.
- 10) The feast day we celebrate on December 26 is for St. Stephen, the first martyr of our Church.

Answers from December 16:

Catholic Trivia (Answers)

All of the questions are true as found in the book, Essential Guide to Seasons and Saints published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Visit their website, they have many useful items to help you get to know your faith.

If you or someone you know is interested in joining the Catholic Church please contact Deacon Rollie at 307-532-1571.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

The birth of the Messiah gives the church great hope. Although secular celebrations of Christmas ignore the significance of the holy day, the church gives us Advent to help us keep our focus. We reorient our hearts and minds to recall, once again, the mysterious glory of the Incarnation. In these weeks of yuletide preparation, we stop to remind ourselves what it means to be Christian, in case we have begun taking it for granted. To be Christian is to believe that God is truly with us, in the most personal, intimate way imaginable; he is one of us! "They shall name him Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'" Through the Incarnation, God became human and lived among us to love us, to guide us, to heal us, and to strengthen us. It is the promise of a savior given through the early prophets, a promise that the faithful held dear as they waited. As that most beautiful of all anniversaries approaches, celebrate this season remembering the greatest gift ever given to every person--the gift of a Savior.

DAILY

ADVENT CHALLENGE

Spend an extra 15 minutes in prayer for all those who will be alone this year. Pray that a good steward will give of themselves to ease the pain of solitude and loneliness.
