St. Leo	Sunday 10:30 am
St. Rose	Saturday 5:30 pm Sunday 8 & 10 am

Today's Gospel occurs in the middle of Jesus' ministry. At first, Jesus' words seem to be about the value of self-sacrifice in a leader. "I am the Good Shepherd? I will lay down my life for the sheep." The Apostles likely would have accepted these words easily enough. But then comes something more strange. "I lay down my life in order to take it up again? I have power to lay it down and power to take it up again." Only later, when Jesus opened the Scriptures to them after his resurrection, would the Apostles understand his words. Only then would they understand why such an act was necessary for the salvation of the world. Even now, we may struggle with the necessity of Holy Week. How often do we hear complaints against the silence of God, as if He is the "hired man" who "runs away" from suffering? Jesus' life, death, and resurrection is our redemption in fact. God himself bears the full weight of sin's consequences. The Paschal Mystery is also a sign that happens in full view of the human experience. We have seen Jesus lay down his life. We have seen him accompany others. "I know mine and mine know me." We have seen him reach those outside the traditional flock, "sheep not of this fold." Jesus is the Good Shepherd, not only in Scripture but in our daily lives.

While we can't experience physically walking alongside him like the Apostles did, the grace of our redemption continues through the Church. We are shepherded by the sacraments, by faith formation, by good mentors. At the same time, we are not only the sheep. In imitating Jesus, we, too, are invited to lay down our lives for others. We can be the hands, feet, and shepherd's crook of Christ.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

LIVING & GIVING IN CHRIST:

UNITY THROUGH DIOCESAN MINISTRIES

Thank you to all who responded so generously to the 2018 annual diocesan appeal, Living & Giving in Christ: Unity through Diocesan Ministries, last weekend. Each year the success of the campaign depends on you. Once more this year, you have done a wonderful thing; your pledges and gifts to Living & Giving in Christ have helped to assure that the Diocese of Cheyenne will be able to continue building the faith community throughout Wyoming. For those of you, who were not here last weekend or for other reasons have not yet made your pledge to this year's diocesan appeal, please consider a pledge by picking up a pledge envelope in your pew or the foyer of the church. You may return the completed form to your Parish office or mail it directly to the Diocese of Cheyenne.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Good and gracious God, You call each person by name and invite them to follow you.

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, may each person hear and respond to the call they have received.

We pray for all discerning marriage, the chaste single life, consecrated life, or ordained ministries, that your Holy Spirit would guide, inspire, and strengthen them.

May your Church and the world be enriched by the "yes" of your children. Amen.

THANK YOU - FROM THE PAPER PANTRY

Have we ever seen such a mountain of useful gifts? Thank you all so much for your donations to the Paper Pantry located in the United Methodist Church.

There were all kinds of paper products and diapers and the toothbrushes! Thanks for the huge bags of little soaps and shampoos. People can pick out a few that they want to try and that they may need. We had more client visits in 2017 than have previously stopped in. The numbers don't seem to still be increasing so fast, but you have really helped make this mission secure for awhile. If you know of someone who can benefit from products, do not hesitate to send them. We often have younger folks who stop by and we don't ask for proof of income but an ID and proof address. We also keep some products that older adults would like and will accept a note from them and their identification as well if someone else needs to make the trip over on Tuesdays between 1-3. You can phone 532-2977, TUMC with questions.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Our Religious Education year is coming to a close! The last class for our Wednesday night students is April 25 and for our Sunday students is April 29. Parents, thank you for bringing your children each week to be educated in the faith.

ARNOLD QUINONEZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Arnold Quinonez Memorial Scholarship applications, sponsored by the Guadalupe Society, are available to St. Rose of Lima Parish candidates for high school graduates, first time college freshmen or a continuing education student in an institution of higher education. The scholarship may be used for expenses in any accredited two or four-year college, university or proprietary school approved by the scholarship committee. Priority deadline is April 30, 2018. Applications may be obtained from Maria Quinonez or in the church office. For questions call 532-5265 or 532-2124.

ST. JOSEPH NOVENA & PARISH CELEBRATION

The Novena to St. Joseph will continue at the morning masses. On Tuesday May 1, the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker, there will be Mass at 5:30 pm followed by a parish dinner in the Hall to celebrate.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

Deacon Rollie will hold Altar Server training for on Wednesday, May 2 at 7:00 pm. Any child who has made their First Communion may become an Altar Server. If you are interested call Deacon Rollie or the Parish Office.

2018 WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

On Sunday, April 22, the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- Encourage young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's Call.
- Consider signing up for a Holy Hour from 1-6.

Dear Padre

Every time I pick up a Catholic magazine, I read articles about taking care of our environment.

Shouldn't Christians be more concerned with the big problems in the world—such as war, hunger, and sickness?

The world's big problems as you name them are not as disconnected to the environment as they seem. The depletion of natural resources displaces people, and their forced migration can create social conflict. Droughts impact some of the estimated 800 million undernourished people globally. Climate affects certain diseases and their transmission. In his encyclical Laudato si', Pope Francis wrote, "The deterioration of the environment and of society affects the most vulnerable people on the planet" (LS 48). He adds that a solution to the crisis demands an approach that is both social and environmental in "combating poverty, restoring dignity to the excluded, and at the same time, protecting nature" (LS 139). Thus, we can't feed the hungry or visit the ill, then dump toxins on the ground and claim we love God's creation. We can't defend the unborn and exploit the environment upon which all life depends. Love demands that we act with care toward all creation, since we cannot sever creation from the Creator. If we respect the earth, we'll find it easy to revere the wartorn, the hungry, and the sick. Moreover, Catholic print and electronic media must help call attention to environmental concerns because they involve our Christian duty to act upon the physical world in a way that respects its relationship to God.

Faith seems like such an easy word. When we read about it in the Catechism of the Catholic Church we discover it has a beautiful depth that seems to call us. Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) Faith affects our moral life.
- 2) We are called to be obedient to faith as our first obligation to God.
- 3) Ignorance of God is the explanation of all moral deviations.
- 4) We have a duty to believe in God and to bear witness to him.
- 5) The fourth commandment requires us to nourish and protect our faith.
- 6) Voluntary doubt is normal and it is ok for us to have.
- 7) God has revealed everything that we need for eternal life through the Church.
- 8) Deliberately cultivated doubt can lead to spiritual blindness.
- 9) Heresy is the firm acceptance of some truth that God has given to us.
- 10) Schism is when the heart splits from what the mind says is impossible.

Good News!

April 22, 2018

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Acts 4:8-12; 1 Jn 3:1-2; Jn 10:11-18

At the center of his painting Hands of the Crucified, Renato Guttuso (1912-1987) places the piercing reality of pain represented by the hand of Jesus. The dark reds, blacks, and blues give way to the brightness of the oranges, yellows, and whites. This choice of palate is purposeful. Death is depicted with the same palate as a sunset, when darkness closes in on the light. But then night gives way to the colors of the sunrise when new life springs forth. The brutal darkness that leads to his death is replaced by the light-giving act of the love of God.

The Good Shepherd also shows the beauty of this love-filled sacrifice. This is why the Father loves Jesus; because he lays down his life for us. He has the power to do so and does it freely. This is because the Shepherd's mission and vocation is centered on the good of the sheep. They are the center of his daily cares and concerns. Jesus tells us that you and I are the utter focus of his heart and life. You are worth it. It is a beautiful thing to be loved by someone. Imagine if this someone is God himself.

As modern as Guttuso's painting looks, the artist honors a traditional symbol. Byzantine art often depicted the blood from Jesus' side falling into a chalice to connect the passion of Jesus with the eucharistic sacrifice. The artist does the same by showing the blood falling into a simple chalice with a host at its center.
