SUNDAY
OF LENT

Jesus said,
"Neither do I
condemn you.
Go, and from now on do not sin any more."
- Jn 8:11b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

"The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle." The episode of the woman caught in adultery is a powerful story. We have perhaps all felt as the woman has at some point in our lives, surrounded by those who would condemn us. The beauty of Christ's mercy at the end is clear...and a welcome relief as we all struggle to be good and holy people. But have we ever imagined ourselves on the edge of the circle? Have we pictured ourselves in the sea of dusty robes? Perhaps, we hope, we're hovering at the edge of the circle of judgment. But we've all been there.

How easy it is to be righteous when someone else's reputation is at stake. When the small child is acting up in the grocery store or on the plane. When another company has a scandal break or a major error sets back their profits. Could it be easy to pick up the stone and feel its weight and heft in our hands? Because if we've got a stone in our hands, our own righteous category is clear. Our judgment is our insurance that we won't be on the receiving end of the criticism. If we can point out a wrong, surely we are firmly in the right.

"Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her'... they went away one by one." This Lent, not only are we invited to receive God's mercy, but to show God's mercy. As the season begins to wind to a close, consider those in your life you tend to judge the most harshly. What is one concrete way you can drop your stone?

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Fr. Ray is providing his chapter by chapter thoughts on the book "Overcoming Lukewarmness" by Francis Fernandez-Carvajal. If you are interested in acquiring this book go to Scepter Press or Amazon.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

Chapter 2 starts off by looking at the two processions which take place in Luke 7:11-15. Upon entering the city called Naim, Jesus met a funeral procession on the way to the cemetery, which was a sorrowful procession. Those following Jesus made up a joyful procession. After the miracle of raising the young man to life, both processions became one joyful one following Jesus. Today in our society there is a procession of sorrowful people deceived by the consumer society, by superficiality, by indifference to suffering, by disordered affections.

True faith, joined with love, is the source of Christian joy. Someone who lives in the light of faith sees the world in a different way, as God sees it, with greater peace and serenity. Faith throws a light on everything; it manifests God's design for man's total vocation.

We should not go through life sad and distressed. Our lives are in the hands of God who wants only our good both temporal and eternal. Even our sins should not dishearten us. They make us humble, trusting more in grace. Life is bound to be full of difficulties: at work, in society, in prayer, in the apostolate. Difficulties are the common lot of human beings, without obstacles, there could be no victories, nor could virtue ascent to the heights of those who are close to Jesus.

Our only duty as Christians is cheerfulness. Joy is a sign that we love God. To be happy is a way to give thanks to God for his many gifts. We need joy for our interior life. Sadness robs us of our spiritual strength.

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We are all sinners, and we all need mercy. If met with sincerity and true repentance of heart, an encounter with God's unconditional and all-forgiving love will lead to true conversion and a new life of grace. There is no point to condemnation or excessive punishment. We do not need to wag fingers or make people feel inferior. Jesus met the woman caught in adultery with compassion. He did not condemn her. People have not always been faithful to God. We have not always been faithful to God. Yet, God waits for us to return and trusts that His seeds of forgiveness and mercy will take root. We do not know if the woman left Jesus and sinned no more. It's not important.

During this guided Lourdes experience, you will immerse yourself in the Gospel Message of Lourdes as given by Our Lady to St. Bernadette. You will have the opportunity to touch the Grotto Rock and to experience the healing grace of Lourdes Water. As part of this spiritual opportunity to draw nearer to God with Our Lady and St. Bernadette, you will receive a Eucharistic blessing and pray the Rosary. A Plenary Indulgence is granted to the faithful, under the usual conditions, who attend a Virtual Pilgrimage with North American Lourdes Volunteers. Come and experience the healing grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ through His Immaculate Mother. Invite your family, children and friends! Our Lady extends her invitation to all!
