Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving,
but believe."
- Jn 20:27

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today's Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." In resurrecting his body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains his wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. "Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name."

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God's voice speaking. We don't get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As he reminds the disciples, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Fr. Ray is providing his chapter by chapter thoughts on the book "Overcoming Lukewarmness" by Francis Fernandez-Carvajal. If you are interested in acquiring this book go to Scepter Press or Amazon.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

Chapter 5 invites us to contemplate Christ, to look at Jesus so that we can find the greatest thing anyone could want. When we look at Jesus everything takes on new meaning: work, joy, disease, and death. You realize you are not in this world just to enjoy yourself, but to love God. Christian life is a personal meeting with the living Christ in mutual love, to love and to be loved.

A lukewarm Christian shoves love aside. It is a clear symptom of tepidity to desire more and more things, have whims and more needs, nearly always unnecessary. If our heart does not love God then something else has to fill it. Yet the only one who can fill the human heart is God.

The lukewarm man grows solitary, and then he must flee himself, do things so as to feel useful. He becomes selectively lazy. He has no time for God, though he has time for much else.

Love of God leads to detachment. Unless we are detached from things, we will not reach God. Our treasure is in heaven. Our treasure is Christ. A continuing personal effort and the action of grace are required to avoid alienation and deadness of soul. A clean heart is essential not only to see God but also to realize the Christian ideal of loving and serving everyone. A clean heart is a full heart in which God lives. With the help of grace, we have all we need to live and grow, to look upon the Lord whom we possess in our hearts.

Why do we do that?
Catholic Life Explained...

Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers - the Divine Mercy Chaplet - and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young women, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."

LIVE THE LITURGY - WEEKLY INSPIRATION

Pace be with you! Of all of the things the resurrected Christ could have said, he chose this: Peace be with you! These calming words lessened the disciples' anxiety and gave them a wonderful sense of reassurance. Words have the power to do that. Jesus touches his friends with his breath and breathes his Spirit upon them. This intimate gesture of peace begins to alleviate the uncertainty and fear that no doubt consumed their thoughts and hearts. Words and gestures are so important in doing God's work. Even the simplest of greetings and actions can profoundly move people and direct them to God. On this Sunday of Divine Mercy, we are reminded that God's all-forgiving and merciful love comes to us through the risen Christ. By our words and actions, may we show that forgiveness and merciful love to others.

PRAYING THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Begin with the Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Apostles Creed. Using regular rosary beads, work your way around the five decades with the prayers below.

On the standalone beads, pray: "Eternal Father, I offer you the body, blood, soul, and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."

On the decade beads, pray: "For the sake of his sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

At the end, pray the following three times: "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

It is typical to conclude the Divine Mercy Chaplet with the words: "Jesus, I trust in you."

LIFE IN CHRIST LAY LEADERSHIP RETREAT

Parishioners in Wyoming are invited to attend the Life in Christ Lay Leadership Retreat being held near Laramie at St. Walburga Abbey. Life in Christ Lay Leadership, under the aegis of the USCCB's Catholic Rural Life, is opening in Wyoming. Catholic Rural Life is currently bringing this program of evangelization to western Dioceses and will be offering its initial retreat/conference for Wyoming on May 22-24 at St. Walburga Abbey (near Laramie). The national leaders from the Life in Christ Lay Leadership will conduct the retreat. Life in Christ Lay Leadership is a small faith community that is based on an annual formation program that consists of prayer and teachings. This year, the teachings will come from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians, the encyclical 'God is Love' and the section in the Catechism on The Dignity of the Human Person (CCC 1691ff.). The heart of the program is the people from Catholic Rural Life who make all of this come alive and bring our Church teachings down from libraries into people's lives and living rooms.

If you desire to grow in your understanding of scripture and in the New Evangelization, we encourage you to attend. I invite you to Google "Life in Christ Lay Leadership" for more information. If you would like to attend this inaugural retreat, please call Fr. Drew Duncan at 307-575-1743 or 307-532-5556. Thanks and have a joyful Easter Season!
