EASTER SUNDAY

The other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. - Jn 20:8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Can you imagine that moment? Can you imagine the stomach drop with dizzying realization: "It's all true. All of it is true! The past three years weren't a dream that ended horribly wrong." Can you imagine all the doubts and despair of the past days chased away like smoke on the wind by a rolled up burial cloth? By an empty tomb?

It didn't start that way, of course. "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." This frantic news from Mary Magdalene would have been another unexpected blow. After all that happened, now his body has been stolen? The love and devotion in Peter and John is apparent. They don't wait to collect more information or stop by the tomb when they have a chance. They run to the site. When is the last time you ran for something? This isn't a run for exercise, but a huffing and puffing bolt fueled by desperation. Can you imagine that moment? The fear pounding in their temples, matching their accelerated heart rate. Can you imagine the impatient affection of John, who outruns Peter but refuses to enter the tomb alone? And then, upon entry, "He saw and believed."

This is the drama of our great feast! The promise that seemed lost has been found. The dead are raised. Long before the Easter eggs and ham, we are invited to meditate on this divine reality. We are invited to feel the desperation and joy of that first Easter Sunday deep in our bones. Because it is not just Mary's story. It's not Peter and John's story. It's our story. From the greatest defeat can come the most awe-inspiring victory, and this is true not just for our God, but for each one of us. He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Fr. Ray is providing his chapter by chapter thoughts on the book "Overcoming Lukewarmness" by Francis Fernandez-Carvajal. If you are interested in acquiring this book go to Scepter Press or Amazon.

Fr. Ray's Book Review

In Chapter 4 we look at the difference between being lukewarm and being half-hearted, experiencing tepidity or spiritual aridity. In lukewarmness, love goes first, then strength. Being half-hearted could come from fatigue, illness or a loss of enthusiasm. When you're genuinely tired, the Lord doesn't want your effort but your love. Whereas in a state of aridity it seems as if dealings with God had lost their meaning. One cannot feel anything in aridity, dealing with God may seem impossible. In lukewarmness, imagination runs wild and prayer is abandoned or produces no fruit. Tepidity is sterile but aridity brings the soul to purification and closer union with God.

Piety is not a matter of how you feel. It should not be confused with emotions. Piety can coexist with total aridity if the Lord permits it. It is often at such times that our relationship with the Lord is purified and becomes stronger. Dryness calls for either sheer faith, clinging faithfully to Jesus in his agony and in his tomb, or it calls for conversion.

In the life of piety we should not allow ourselves to be guided by feelings but by reason, illuminated and aided by faith. For some souls, emotions constitute the whole of their piety, so that they are certain they have lost it when their feelings disappear. The interior life requires that one be open to new graces. If we try to correspond in small things, the Holy Spirit will provide greater help. As with human love it's necessary to offer up anew to God's love each day, for every day brings new obstacles and difficulties. Each day we can come a little, or a lot, closer to God.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Alleluia! Christ is risen! We are called, by how we live our lives, to celebrate the risen Christ. How do we do that? Our faith in the resurrection gathers us here today to celebrate this incredible event. The good news is that the doors of eternity are open! We can now understand that the fullness of who we are will be discovered when we one day meet God face-to-face in heaven. Our faith in the truth of who God is and who we are affects how we live our lives and the decisions we make. We are called to love our neighbor...to love those who hurt us...to work on behalf of the poor and the weak...to be people of justice, integrity, and hope... to practice compassion and mercy above anything else. Our lives are meant to be oriented around the axis of the Gospel. Are they?

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained...

Why does the date of Easter change every year, while most other celebrations are celebrated on the same day?

Every feast is celebrated at a certain time for a reason. Saints feast days are commonly the day of their death. While we don't know Jesus' exact birthday, we celebrate the "light of the world" around the time of winter solstice, as dark, wintery days begin to lengthen again. We have a historical clue, however, to when the Easter events occurred. We know that Jesus was crucified the day before Passover. The Jews calculated the date for Passover based on both the solar and lunar calendars. It corresponds to the first full moon after the spring equinox. The early Christians maintained this connection in their celebrations of Easter on the first Sunday after the paschal full moon.

We don't re-calculate the full moon every year. As astronomy developed, so too did the forecasts of when Easter would occur in future years. The Church has created a table of calculated dates, projecting the date of Easter decades in advance. The date of Easter also determines the date of Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent, as well as the feast days following in the Easter season, including Pentecost. So these feasts move, too! This tradition may seem complicated, but it connects our Christian faith now to what has come before - our Jewish roots and the real, historical reality of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection.

EASTER PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Good and gracious heavenly Father, we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ.

Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love.

Bless also those who have yet to profess belief in you.

You are God for all.

We ask all this in Christ's name.

Amen.
