THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother.

They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

OLPI

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." What a wonderful example the Magi give us in their visit to the infant Jesus. First of all, they demonstrate profound faith in God's word, spoken through the prophet Micah: "And you, Bethlehem ... from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel" (cf. 5:2). Embarking on a long and difficult journey, they trust that they will find this newborn king of the Jews in Bethlehem as the prophecy announced. On their arrival at the home of the Holy Family, the Magi also give us an example of profound humility. These important men, to whom kings look for guidance and advice, do not hesitate to bow down, to "prostrate themselves" and give homage to a tiny babe. Putting their own position out of their minds, they reverently worship the infant Lord even as he sits on the lap of his mother.

The generosity of these three "kings" is also evident as they open their treasure boxes and give to the poor child the richest of gifts. Traditionally, we understand the gold to symbolize the earthly kingship of Christ, the frankincense to represent his divinity, and the myrrh to stand as a symbol of the anointing he will receive upon his death.

Finally, the wisdom of these men is evident in their decision to return to their country "by another way." Understanding the threat that King Herod posed to Jesus, they followed a plan that would help keep the divine child safe even though it meant inconvenience to themselves.

Faith, humility, generosity, and wisdom. These gifts are the real legacy of the Three Kings. Today, let us ask God for the blessing of having these gifts in our lives.

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. CATHOLIC YOUTH RETREAT

Jesus' loving presence is the focus of the Wyoming Catholic Youth Retreat (WCYR). Youth and young adults, ages 13-30, are invited to become better acquainted with Jesus from Feb. 16-18, 2018, at St. Anthony Tri-Parish School in Casper.

In an effort to inspire that important relationship, the WCYR weekend includes continual Eucharistic adoration, an inspiring presentation of the Eucharist, devotion to our Blessed Mother and learning the beauty of the Catholic faith.

There also are talks, music, age-based breakout sessions, testimonies, an opportunity to go to Reconciliation and a chance to meet other young people.

The Wyoming retreat, now in its 18th year, places the Eucharist at the center of personal and community living.

Lunch and dinner are provided on Saturday. The $45 registration fee includes the cost for the meals.

However, overnight accommodations are up to participants. All youth under 18 years must be accompanied by a chaperone.

For more information about the retreat, registration or for other questions, call Gerise Vignaroli at 307-234-9091 or 307-258-3221; visit wyomingyouthretreat.com, or check out the Wyoming Youth Retreat Facebook page.

ROSARY

Every Sunday at 10:15 am the vocations committee will be saying the rosary for our adopted seminarian Clark Lenz. All are welcome to join us.

Dear Padre

What is the real meaning of the visit of the three kings to Jesus, and does that visit have meaning for us today?

At the most fundamental level, the three kings represent all of the world's nations. These nations come and share their treasures with Jesus. In this context, the mission of the three kings can be seen as a challenge to all nations to recognize Jesus and share the treasures they have. We can link the story of the three kings with another in Scripture—the multiplication of the loaves (see Matthew 14:13–21). In this story, the disciples represent the three kings.

The disciples ask Jesus: “How can we possibly provide food for all these people?” But Jesus insists: “You yourselves give them food to eat.” So the disciples divide up their five loaves and two fish, and everyone has enough to eat. The Gospel message is that when we share what we have, then we will have enough for all. We can look at it from a broader viewpoint: When one nation shares with another, there is enough for all. We all work toward this sense of sharing in our own lives by not accumulating more than we need and by trying to share with those who have less.

We can contribute on another level by being heard through our political choices and through our involvement in local, national, and international issues. We are not perfect, but the Lord does not demand perfection. The Lord asks for progress and an honest effort. May the Lord strengthen us to share more at home and internationally, so that all of us may royally sit together at our king's banquet.

1) False, we begin the month of January with a Holy Day of Obligation in honor of Mary, the Mother of God; 2) True, you can learn more about St. Elizabeth by going to her web site to visit her shrine from the comfort of your home; 3) True, St. Raymond was so worn out from his work in Rome that he will return home, refuse an offer to become a bishop, resign as the master general of the Dominican Order, and die in peace; 4) True, St. Hilary was known as the "Athanasius of the West," but today we only have two arm bones and a portable altar stone that he used on his pastoral journeys, which is much venerated, especially on Good Friday during which many cures are reported every year; 5) True, St. Paul is known as the "First Hermit" and the lions were his friends who he protected and fed in life; 6) False, St. Marcellus I was indeed elected in 308, but he was sent into exile and died a year later. St. Peter's Basilica will not be built until many years later; 7) False, actually they died fifty years apart from each other and may have never even met in life, but they were buried together in St. Sebastian Church; 8) True, and the prison in which she died can still be seen under the Church; 9) True, even the great saints must be filled with humility when they realize all that they did was nothing, and they did it all with the grace of God; 10) False, we do end the month with the great St. John Bosco, but he did not like to dream, because his dreams were always warnings of death for those he loved.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Is 60:1-6; Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6; Mt 2:1-12

A mysterious scene barely comes to light before us. Are we inside or outside of a Roman portico? What is going on in the background? The central scene clearly shows the Child Jesus perched in the Virgin's arms and surrounded by swaddling clothes. A glow emanates from the Child that enlightens the three Wise Men processing toward Jesus. Their whole caravan chaotically crowds around and strains to see the king they have come to worship. A dalmatian wanders behind while a camel appears in the back lighting with a knowing smirk. The Ethiopian sage sympathetically stares out from the center of the painting and seemingly asks us if we understand the significance of their travels.

The arrival of these astronomers from the East sends a very important message for all of us at Mass today. Jesus is the light of the whole world, and all peoples—no matter how far or how lost—are invited by his attractive and saving light. This light came to the Chosen People and will be fully consumed in Jerusalem as Isaiah prophesies. Yet he will proclaim that all peoples are invited to be members of the same family and coheirs to the treasures of God's love and mercy. Faith in him and acceptance of his gospel truth is all he asks. So no matter how far you or anyone you know seems from Jesus and his truth, he loves them and wants them around his table to experience his love.
