Our humanity bleeds through today's Gospel passages in more ways than one. We see both elation and fall, hope in the midst of the darker sides of our natures. If we allow it, these Gospels hold a mirror to our own fickle hearts. The crowds cry "Hosanna" and the Apostles profess allegiance unto death. In a manner of days -- even hours -- Jesus is betrayed, abandoned, denied, condemned, tortured, and executed. As God, he could have stopped this horrific narrative from unfolding, but he doesn't. He allows free will to play itself out.

There are nearly two millennia between this spectacle and us. We can stand safely removed, if we choose. But Lent invites us to return to this story. Lent invites us to find ourselves in the people we encounter there. Are we the repentant woman at Bethany? Are we naysayers of such lavish piety? Have we acted in a way that betrays those we love or denies what we know to be good and true? Have we fallen asleep in our faith? Have we unfairly accused others of a crime or immorality we imagine, though perhaps they didn't commit? Do we help others carry their burdens? Do we stand in solidarity with those who suffer? Do we care for the dying?

This week, take up today's Gospel again. Look carefully at the Passion narrative and sit with it in silence. Find yourself in the story and ponder its meaning for your own life. Journey with Jesus to the foot of the Cross so that you too may say, along with the faithful centurion, "truly this man was the Son of God!"

Welcome! It is our hope that you feel at home and among friends here. If you are a visitor for the day, we pray God's speed on your journey. If you are looking for a parish community, we would be delighted to welcome you into our parish family. Please introduce yourselves. To register in one of our parishes, please visit the St. Rose office at 605 East 22nd Ave in Torrington or call 532-5556.

Catholic Trivia (Answers)

LIVE THE LITURGY

Today some of the most poignant themes of human life come into clear central focus: the feeling of being praised and honored, fear, anxiety, betrayal, despair, doubt, uncertainty, trust, hope, sadness, separation, suffering, death, determination, and courage. These are the emotions and realities that every human being wrestles with often. Jesus, the Son of God, encounters them all. As we journey through life, we have to confront the existential meaning of each of these things. How do they fit into the bigger picture? Jesus shows us most clearly that even those things we fear the most lose their power when we discover that we are being led to new life. Suffering is redemptive. Sin and death give way to grace and life and God's unconditional love conquers all. May we see in Jesus' Way of the Cross the path of truth we all must follow.

STEPHEN TARLETON DOUGHERTY

Stephen Tarleton Dougherty, a former Catholic priest of the Diocese of Corpus Christi, Texas and former member of the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity, was convicted in Texas of raping a teenage girl in 2011. We are notifying the people within the Diocese of Cheyenne because he also served at St. Ann Parish in Saratoga from November 2003 until December 2004. As a Diocese we reaffirm our commitment to the safety of all God's children. Together let us be vigilant in providing a safe environment and praying for all victims of clergy sexual abuse. If anyone has experienced abuse by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, please contact Fr. Carl Gallinger, Vicar General, at (307) 638-1530.

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please submit announcements for the Tri-Parish bulletin by Wednesday at 10:00 am for inclusion in the following weekend's bulletin. Announcements may be sent to Becky Moffat at triparish.bulletins@gmail.com or 307-277-9483.

Jesus descended into hell and on the third day he rose again. What does all this mean according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Answer True or False.

Catholic Trivia

- 1) The frequent New Testament affirmations that Jesus was raised from the dead presuppose that the crucified one sojourned in the realm of the dead prior to his resurrection.
- 2) Jesus descended into hell reminds us that Jesus, like all men, experienced death and in his soul joined the others in the realm of the dead.
- 3) Jesus descended into hell as Savior, proclaiming the Good News to the spirits imprisoned there.
- 4) When Jesus descended into hell he completed the last phase of his messianic mission.
- 5) When Jesus preached to the souls in hell he saved those souls who were lost.
- 6) Jesus went down to the realm of the dead and He opened heaven's gate for the just who had gone before him.
- 7) Jesus descended into hell so that he could go in search for Cain, our first father, as for a lost sheep.
- 8) On the third day Jesus rose from the dead which was the crowning truth of our faith in Jesus.
- 9) The resurrection of Jesus is a real even which cannot be verified historically.
- 10) The resurrection of Jesus is an essential part of the Paschal mystery along with the cross.
